

Objectives of the Global Network on Electoral Justice

Exchange experiences

Dynamic communication

Global agenda

Global strategies

Purpose

The Global Network on Electoral Justice is an international collaborative forum that works towards strengthening the effective protection of electoral-political rights and offers a space for collective reflections.

Benefits for Network members

The Global Exchange Platform with judicial documents and academic studies by experts in the field of electoral justice, available in English, French and Spanish.

Exchange of electoral, institutional, judicial and legal information and experiences.

Direct dialogue with judges, scholars and experts in the discussion forum of the Global Exchange Platform.

Notifications with information and news related to electoral justice.

Current themes of interest

Democratic disaffection

Equal political participation

Digital revolution

Political financing

The Global Network on Electoral Justice brings together:

- Courts and tribunals who administer cases related to electoral-political rights from across the globe
- International organizations and academic institutions
- Think tanks and individual experts

The mapping of institutions considered each country's particular electoral justice system, recent court rulings and electoral reforms, regional influence and geographic location.

48 representatives
34 national authorities
30 countries
21 organizations and experts

