(7) If the voter changes his/her place of residence or will not be present at his/her domicile or temporary place of residence during the Elections to the Parliament, for the position of President of the Republic of Moldova and Republican Referendum, the Precinct Electoral Bureau to which the voter is being allocated according to the basic Voter's List, at the request of the voter and on the basis of the identity document, accepted for voting, shall issue him/her a certificate for the right to vote. The voter shall confirm the receipt of the certificate for the right to vote, by signing in a special register maintained by the Precinct Electoral Bureau. The reference on the issue of the certificate for the right to vote shall be made by the Precinct Electoral Bureau under the heading 'Note', which indicates the date of issue, the voting certificate number and the name of the member of the Precinct Electoral Bureau which issued it.

(8) Persons eligible to vote who, after the last participation in the elections, changed their place of residence are entitled, no later than 25 days before the next Parliamentary, Presidential Elections or Republican Referendum, to declare their new place of stay in order to be included on the Voters' Lists of the polling station corresponding to that place of stay. The procedure for declaring a stay is laid down by the Regulation approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

(9) The Voter's Lists shall be transmitted by the Central Electoral Commission to the local public administration authorities at least 22 days before the Elections Day, in a stamped copy, with the application of other protective marks on each page. The Voter's List shall be forwarded immediately to the Precinct Electoral Bureau in order to ensure the verification by voters, representatives of the electoral competitors/participants in the referendum and observers. After making the changes, at least 7 days before the Elections Days, the lists shall be printed repeatedly and shall be forwarded at the latest simultaneously with the ballot papers, in 2 stamped copies, with the application of other protective marks on each page, one of which shall be sent for storage to the Mayors' Office, through the Precinct Electoral Bureau.

(10) Modifications to the Voters' Lists may be requested from the Central Electoral Commission or the Precinct Electoral Bureau at least 7 days before the Elections Days. The Precinct Electoral Bureau shall immediately notify the registrars of local public administration authorities on the requested changes, by attaching the supporting documents. The registrar shall verify the data and, where appropriate, carry out the corresponding marks in the State Register of Voters.

(11) For the second round, the same basic Voter's Lists are being used. The Supplementary Voter's Lists shall be drawn up separately for each round of elections.

Article 62. Verification of the Voters' Lists

(1) Voter's Lists containing the names, forenames, year of birth and domicile/temporary residence of each voter shall be made available at the premises of the polling stations no later than 20 days before the Elections Day. Within the same period, the voters are being informed by all available communication means (Media, telephone, posters, internet) of the possibility of verifying the Voter's Lists at the premises of the Precinct Electoral Bureau.

(2) The voter may check his/her data through the information resources of the Central Electoral Commission, in accordance with the procedure established in that regard.

(3) Voters, representatives of the electoral competitors, participants in the referendum and observers shall be offered the opportunity to get acquainted with the Voter's Lists and to verify whether the data on voters are correct. They shall have the right to submit requests for inclusion on or exclusion from the list and to correct errors committed when entering their personal data or data of other voters, no later than 7 days before the Elections Day. Requests shall be examined within 24 hours by the notified electoral body. The decisions on the submitted request may be challenged by interested subjects in the Court, according to the established procedure, if their request to correct or include the data in the list was rejected.

(4) The Voter's Lists used on the Elections Day, that contain the full data on voters from that polling station, in accordance with Article 61 (2), shall be forwarded to the Precinct Electoral Bureaus, at the latest simultaneously with the ballot papers. Access to the Voters' Lists shall be permitted on the basis of a confidentiality declaration, the model of which is being approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

(5) The Central Electoral Commission shall draw up and approve: the procedure for compilation, verification and updating Voter's Lists, by expressly regulating the manner in which the lists are being transmitted to the Precinct Electoral Bureaus; the terms and conditions for including/excluding voters in/from the Voters' Lists by the members of the Precinct Electoral Bureau; the rules for the subsequent submission of the final Voter's Lists and other necessary aspects.

Chapter VII NOMINATION AND REGISTRATION OF CANDIDATES.

CONFIRMATION OF ELECTORAL COMPETITORS REPRESENTATIVES

Article 63. Nomination of candidates

(1) In Parliamentary and Presidential Elections, the procedure for the nomination of candidates shall start 60 days before the Elections Days and ends 30 days before the Elections Days. In local elections, candidates shall be nominated after the District Electoral Councils have been established in accordance with Article 157, but not earlier than 60 days before the Elections Days.

(2) The following entities shall have the right to nominate candidates, if they meet all requirements set forth by the present Code:

a) political parties registered until the set of the date of elections, in accordance with their statutes (regulations) and legislation;

b) electoral blocs of parties;

c) citizens of the Republic of Moldova who submit their own applications (independent candidates, candidates for the position of President of the Republic of Moldova).

(3) The procedure for nomination of candidates shall comprise:

a) in the case of political parties and electoral blocs of parties – the approval, within the meetings of the bodies authorised in accordance with the statutory provisions, respectively, with the agreements for establishing them, confirmed by minutes (extracted from the minutes), of the decisions/orders on the nomination of candidates/lists of candidates for elective public positions. In presidential elections – establish initiative groups for the collection of signatures to support the nominated candidates, as well as prepare and submit the necessary documents for registration as an electoral competitor, under the conditions of this Code;

b) in the case independent candidates/candidates for the position of President of the Republic of Moldova — submit an application for an elective public position, where appropriate, to establish the initiative group to collect signatures to support the candidate, as well as prepare and submit the necessary documents for registration as an electoral competitor, under the conditions of this Code.

(4) The procedure for nomination of candidates shall also include the stage of collection of signatures by the persons who present their own candidature and/or by initiative groups to support candidates to elective positions.

(5) The subjects listed in paragraph (2) cannot take decisions on the initiation of the procedure for nomination of candidates/of their own candidature, before the beginning of the nomination period referred to in paragraph (1) and the documents drawn up for that purpose, before the beginning of the period referred to in paragraph (1), shall be considered null.

Article 64. Peculiarities of the creation and registration of electoral blocs of parties

(1) The electoral blocs of parties for all types of elections shall be registered by the Central Electoral Commission.

(2) In the case of Parliamentary, Presidential and Local Elections, the acts necessary to register the electoral blocs of parties shall be submitted with the Central Electoral Commission no later than 30 days before the beginning of the candidates nomination period.

(3) Political parties may agree on the establishment of an electoral bloc of parties, recording their decision to participate in its establishment, approved in accordance with their statutes (regulations), in minutes.

(4) The electoral blocs of parties shall be created on the basis of the establishment agreement, approved by registered political parties that have decided to participate in the creation of an electoral bloc of parties, in the manner provided for by law, before the Elections date has been set.

(5) The agreement to establish the electoral bloc of parties shall include:

- a) the constituent parts of the electoral bloc of parties;
- b) the full name, abbreviated name of the block and, where appropriate, the electoral symbol in graphic format, together with its textual description;
- c) the person/body having the right of representation and the contact details;
- d) the manner of withdrawing of one of the parts from the electoral bloc of parties and/or association with another political party;
- e) the procedure for nominating the candidate (candidates)/list (lists) of candidates and the procedure for amending the list (lists) of candidates, where appropriate, the procedure for establishing the initiative group;
- f) the manner and procedure for distributing the allocations from the State budget;
- g) the manner of reimbursement of the credit requested and offered from the State budget for the conduct of the electoral campaign and of the expenses connected with the organisation and holding of elections in accordance with Articles 51 and 52;
- h) the procedure for the liquidation (cessation of activity) of the electoral bloc of parties;
- i) where applicable, documents drawn up in Art. 68 (1);
- j) other provisions which do not contravene the rules of this Code.

(6) Within 5 days after the receipt of the acts, the Central Electoral Commission shall adopt a decision on the registration or refusal to register the electoral bloc of parties. In the event of refusal to register the electoral bloc of parties, the constituent political parties may nominate their candidates on their own

(7) Political parties which have established the electoral bloc of parties shall not be entitled to appoint the candidate (candidates)/list (lists) of candidates on their own.

(8) If, after the end of the period of nomination of candidates, in the composition of the bloc of parties, remains only one constituent party, the block is not considered as being automatically dissolved.

Article 65. Collection of signatures in support of the candidate for the position of President of the Republic of Moldova and of the independent candidate

(1) For the purposes of this Article, signatures shall be collected only to support candidates for the position of the President of the Republic of Moldova and for independent candidates for the position of Member of the Parliament of Moldova, councillor in local council and/or the Mayor.

(2) Signatures shall be collected in accordance with the general requirements laid down in this Article and the special conditions laid down in Titles III to V, corresponding to the type of elections for which the candidate is supported, as well as those laid down in the administrative acts adopted by the Central Electoral Commission for that purpose, including by ensuring compliance with the legislation on the protection of personal data.

(3) Shall have the right to collect signatures independent candidates, candidates for the position of President of the Republic of Moldova and the members of the initiative group (collectors), established to support those candidates in elections. In Presidential Elections, the establishment and registration of the initiative groups for the collection of signatures shall be compulsory. In Parliamentary and Local Elections, the independent candidate may choose not to establish an initiative group if he/she decides to collect signatures by himself/herself.

(4) The manner for establishing and registering the initiative groups to support candidates for one of the elective positions listed in paragraph (1) is laid down by Titles III to V and in the administrative acts of the Commission adopted for that purpose. The initiative group, established under the terms laid of this Code, shall be registered at:

a) the Central Electoral Commission — in case of supporting the candidate for the position of President of the Republic of Moldova or an independent candidate for the position of Member of the Parliament of the Republic of Moldova;

b) the District Electoral Council — in case of supporting an independent candidate for the position of councillor in local council and/or Mayor.

(5) The collection of signatures shall begin on the date of nomination of the candidate under the conditions laid down in Article 63. The electoral body shall issue the signatures collecting lists and the badges for the collectors on the date of registration of the initiative group and/or on the date of independent candidate addressing.

(6) Signatures shall be collected on the basis of the signatures collecting lists, the model of which is being approved by the Central Electoral Commission. The signatures collecting lists shall be issued by the electoral body which has the power to register the candidate.

(7) The signatures collecting lists shall include the elective position for which signatures are collected, the candidate's surname and forename, the year of birth, the profession (occupations), the place of work and the person who appointed him/her, as well as the surname and forename of the collector.

(8) In the signatures collecting list, the candidate's supporter shall fill in the personal data and apply the signature by himself/herself. If the supporter cannot, for objective reasons, fill in the requested data in person, that information shall be completed by the collector. The signature on the signatures collecting list shall be applied by the supporter in person, if this is not possible - by its representative.

(9) The collector shall be responsible for the authenticity of the data on drawn up signatures collecting list. On each signatures collecting list, the collector states that the signatures were collected by him/her and that he/she confirms the authenticity of the signatories and then signs.

(10) For infringement of the provisions on the procedure for collecting signatures and on the protection of personal data, the collector is liable according to the law.

(11) The supporter of the candidate can only be a person who, at the time of signing the signatures collecting list, is eligible to vote. A voter may support several candidates, including for several elective duties, by signing for them. A voter cannot support the same candidate, by signing, twice or more times.

(12) Depending on the type of held elections, the signatures are being collected:

a) in any locality in the national electoral district — in Parliamentary Elections;

b) in any locality from at least half of the number of localities from the second-level administrative-territorial units, established in accordance with Law No 764/2001 on the administrative and territorial organisation of the Republic of Moldova – in Presidential Elections;

c) in the locality/localities of the Electoral District in which he/she submits the candidature – in local elections.

(13) The signatures collecting list will only contain signatures of supporters who are allocated in a single district in which elections are to be held. In Elections for the position of President of the Republic of Moldova, the signatures collecting list shall contain only signatures of supporters from the same second-level administrative-territorial unit.

Article 66. Submission of the signatures collecting lists

(1) The signatures collecting lists shall be submitted with the relevant electoral body together with the documents necessary for registering candidates. The procedure for receiving documents and signatures collecting lists is laid down in regulations on the peculiarities of the nomination and registration of candidates for each type of elections, approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

(2) If the candidate is being supported for the Parliamentary, Presidential or Local Election, the lists including the signature of supporters shall be submitted, no later than 30 days before the Elections Days, to the corresponding electoral body for verification. It is prohibited to lodge additional signatures collecting lists after the electoral body has received and registered the signatures collecting lists.

(3) After receiving the signatures collecting lists, the electoral body shall verify the signatures in accordance with Article 67. Verification of the signatures collecting lists is carried out simultaneously with the examination of documents submitted for candidates, under the conditions and time-limits laid down in Article 68.

Article 67. Verification of signatures collecting lists

(1) The electoral body shall verify the authenticity of the data entered and the signatures on the signatures collecting lists within the amount limit laid down in Articles 113, 139 and 164.

(2) In order to check the signatures collecting lists, the electoral body shall use the electronic application. The Guide for the application's operation shall be approved by the order of the Chairperson of the Central Electoral Commission.

(3) In the process of verification of signatures collecting lists, shall be entitled to attend, upon request submitted to the electoral body, the following subjects – candidates and/or leaders of initiative groups, as well as accredited observers. Candidates for elections and/or leaders of the initiative groups shall have the right to attend only the process of checking the signatures collecting lists which they have submitted. The conditions for attending the process of checking the signatures collecting lists are laid down in the guide provided for in paragraph (2).

(4) The signatures collecting lists shall be completely invalidated if they:

- a) they are of a different model or series (number) than those issued by the electoral body to the collector;
- b) are not being signed by the collector in the manner laid down in Article 65 (9);
- c) do not contain the surname and forename of the candidate in support of which the signatures are being collected.

(5) The signature from the signatures collecting list shall be invalidated if the supporter:

- a) enters the personal data but did not applied the signature in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 65 (8);
- b) is not eligible to vote at the date of signature application on the signatures collecting list;
- c) has entered his/her data from the expired identity document;
- d) is being allocated in another Electoral District than the one on the territory of which the signatures were collected;
- e) entered incorrect identity data on the signatures collecting list, which do not enable to identify him/her.

(6) The manner in which the signatures collecting lists are drawn up, the procedure for collecting signatures and the time limit for submitting and verifying them and the responsibilities of the collectors are laid down in a regulation approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

Article 68. Registration of electoral competitors

(1) The provisions of this article shall apply to Media outlets, with the exception of those founded by political parties.

(2) The media institutions are required to respect the fairness, balance and impartiality principles in elections coverage. They must provide airtime or space for electoral advertising under equal and non-discriminatory conditions to the initiative groups, electoral competitors and participants in the referendum.

(3) Media outlets shall not adopt preferential treatment in respect of the initiative groups, electoral competitors and participants in the referendum due to their social status and/or the positions held by their candidates.

(4) During the electoral period, Media outlets shall make a clear distinction in their journalistic materials between the performance of official duties and the electoral activity of persons who do not fall under the Article 16 (3).

(5) Electoral contestants (candidates) or referendum participants who consider that their rights have been violated shall have the right to reply. The written request on granting of the right to reply shall be submitted to the media institution within 2 days since the dissemination/publication of the information. In case of media service providers, the refusal to grant the right to reply may be challenged to the Audiovisual Council, and in the case of print media institutions – to the Central Electoral Commission. The right to reply shall be granted within 3 days after submitting the request/complaint, under equal/similar conditions to those in which the legitimate rights were violated.

(6) Media institutions are entitled to cover elections and to inform the public about all electoral aspects free of interference from public authorities, electoral competitors/candidates, initiative groups, participants in the referendum or other entities. The journalists authorized by media institutions and confirmed by the Central Electoral Commission have access to the meetings of the electoral bodies, to the electoral procedures and to the electoral information under the same conditions as observers.

Article 90. Peculiarities of Media coverage of the elections

(1) During the electoral period, electoral audiovisual programmes and written materials that refer in one or another way to the initiative groups, electoral competitors (candidates in elections) and participants in the referendum shall be distributed/published in accordance with the Regulation on Media coverage of the elections, approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

(2) In audiovisual media services, initiative groups, electoral competitors (candidates in elections), their participants in the referendum, their representatives and trustworthy persons may not have direct or indirect interventions and cannot be targeted by third parties in audiovisual programmes other than electoral programmes, which are expressly established in the editorial policies statements of Media service providers. Audiovisual programs with an electoral character are considered the following:

a) news programmes — informative headings or groups of information, marked by unique acoustic and visual signals, in which may be broadcasted information on voting technique, the electoral system, other aspects of the electoral process, opinion polls and the campaign activities of the initiative groups, the electoral competitors and the participants in the referendum;

b) electoral information programmes — programmes organised on the initiative of the media service provider, in which the initiative groups, electoral competitors (candidates in elections), participants in the referendum or their representatives may present political programmes and in which various issues of public interest may be discussed;

c) elections promotion programmes — programmes broadcasted within the air time limit offered to the initiative groups, the electoral competitors and the participants in the referendum under this Code;

d) electoral debates — programmes in which the initiative groups, electoral competitors (candidates in elections), the participants in the referendum or their representatives are called to express their views on the topics proposed for discussion by the media service provider;

e) electoral advertising programmes — programmes intended exclusively for the dissemination of electoral advertising.

(3) The audiovisual programmes referred to in paragraph (1) shall be produced and broadcasted only during the electoral period and, where appropriate, during the electoral campaign, in accordance with the provisions of the Audiovisual Media Services Code and Regulation on Media coverage of the elections.

(4) During the electoral period, the political advertising and public interest messages shall be broadcasted in accordance with the procedure laid down in the regulation approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

(5) Within the first 7 days following the start of the electoral period, media service providers shall submit to the Audiovisual Council a statement on the editorial policy for covering elections or a notification informing that they shall not participate in the election coverage. Statements that correspond to the legislation shall be approved by the Audiovisual Council and shall be published on its official website and on the official web pages of media service providers. The control over compliance with the editorial policy shall be performed by the Audiovisual Council ex officio, according to the provisions of the Audiovisual Media Services Code.

(6) During the electoral campaign for all type of elections, audiovisual media service providers are required to organise debates if they have included in their editorial policy statements the commitments to organize of electoral debates and they have been adopted by the Audiovisual Council. The format, duration, frequency and time of broadcasting electoral debates shall be established by media service providers, by ensuring strict or proportional equality, as indicated in the editorial policy statement. Electoral debates shall be broadcasted during the prime time, laid down by the Code of audiovisual media services of the Republic of Moldova.

(7) During the electoral campaign for the Parliamentary, Presidential Elections and Republican Referendum, national media service providers which will cover the electoral campaign, the list of which is being updated and made public by the Audiovisual Council, shall grant, free of charge, 5 minutes of TV airtimes and 10 minutes of radio airtime to each political party, electoral bloc of parties and independent candidate registered as electoral competitors or participant in a referendum. These airtimes shall be offered for the purpose of presenting the electoral programs and informing the voters. These airtimes shall be fully granted during the first 15 days after the start of the electoral campaign and cannot be used for the purpose of broadcasting electoral advertising.

(8) In Parliamentary, Presidential Election and Republican Referendum, public media service providers shall grant, free of charge, one minute of air time per day, for electoral advertising, to political parties, electoral blocs of parties and independent candidates registered as electoral competitors or participants in the referendum.

(9) To each initiative group, for the duration of its activities, and to each electoral competitor or participant in the referendum, during the electoral campaign, shall be offered a maximum of 2 minutes per day for payed electoral advertising by each audiovisual media service provider. The fee for the electoral advertising may not exceed the fee of commercial advertising applied during the period of 6 months prior to the Elections Day. Payed air time for electoral advertising shall be offered under equal conditions, within the hours established by media service providers in the editorial policy statements. Media service providers that do not participate in elections coverage do not have the right to place paid electoral advertising.

(10) Within 3 days of request, media service providers shall provide air time in accordance with the order established in the editorial policy statement.

(11) The refusal to broadcast or publish, under the conditions laid down in this Code, paid or free of charge electoral advertising may be challenged before the Court.

(12) During the electoral period, the procedures for organising and conducting opinion polls on the political preferences of voters and exit-polls shall be laid down by regulation approved by the Central Electoral Commission. Only authorised opinion polls may be published. The broadcasting and coverage of the results of unauthorised opinion polls shall be punished in accordance with the legislation.

(13) On Elections Day, before 21.00, Republic of Moldova local time, the Media outlets shall not publish the results of opinion polls on voters' political preferences, interviews on the number of votes received by the electoral competitors during the day and their chances, as well as the results of the exit-polls.

(14) Media outlets founded by public authorities, that cover elections, shall publish free of charge, and the public and private audiovisual media service providers, whose editorial policy statements have been approved, broadcast free of charge, at the request of electoral bodies, messages of public interest under the conditions laid down in Chapter III of Law No 62/2022 on advertising.

(15) During the electoral period, the Audiovisual Council monitors the manner in which media service providers observe the editorial policy statements on elections coverage. Depending on the technical possibilities, shall be monitored, as a matter of priority, the generalist media services and news providers which, according to the measurements taken by the specialised institution, have had the highest audiences during the last three months before the month in which the date of elections was established.

(16) During the electoral period, the Audiovisual Council shall present publicly monitoring reports, on weekly basis, and shall adopt decisions based on the monitoring results. Within 3 days after elections (on Wednesday), the Audiovisual Council presents publicly a monitoring report for Saturday and Sunday, during which the electoral campaigning is prohibited. The monitoring reports, as well as the balance report, are presented to the Central Electoral Commission and are posted on the official web page of the Audiovisual Council and on the official web pages of the monitored media service providers, no later than the day after the public presentation.

(17) Within two weeks after elections, the Audiovisual Council shall publicly present a final report on the coverage of the elections by audiovisual media service providers.

(2) Electoral officials, observers and the civil society associations that have requested the accreditation of observers may submit complaints against the electoral body that has applied to them sanctions provided for in Articles 102 (6) and (8). In those cases, the legality of the decision shall be challenged to hierarchically superior electoral body.

(3) The complainants shall submit the request and/or take part in the procedure for considering complaints in person or through authorised representatives under the Administrative Code or, where appropriate, under the Code of Civil Procedure. The submission of the request and/or participation in the procedure for considering complaints within the electoral bodies shall be determined by the decisions approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

(4) The Central Electoral Commission or, where appropriate, the District Electoral Council or the Audiovisual Council may initiate ex officio the procedure for consideration of the infringements referred to in Article 91 (1), lit. c) and (d).

Article 95. The deadline for submitting a complaint

(1) The general period for submitting complaints during the electoral period shall be 3 days, which shall be calculated from the day following the day when the action was committed, inaction was identified or the decision was adopted.

(2) In the cases provided for in this Code or other normative acts, complaints may not be submitted later than on Elections Day or on another determined or ascertainable date (circumstance).

(3) In the event of divergence between the rules of this Code and other normative acts, the provisions of this Code shall be applied in the part related to the deadlines for submitting complaints during the electoral period.

(4) Complaints referred to the facts that fall under Article 91 (1) lit. d) shall be submitted to the corresponding electoral body, within 3 days of the identification of offences, including after the Elections Day, but no later than the mandates are being validated.

(5) The complaints on of the elections coverage by media service providers shall be submitted to the Audiovisual Council within 3 days after the identification of infringements or broadcasting the audiovisual programme by which the complainant's rights have been violated.

(6) The request for granting the right to reply and to challenge the refusal to offer the right to reply shall be submitted within the periods laid down in Chapter XII.

(7) Requests for cancellation the registration, accreditation or confirmation of electoral subjects shall be submitted to the competent electoral body no later than 5 days before the Elections Day. Requests submitted after that deadline shall be considered simultaneously with tabulation and confirmation of the elections results.

(8) The submission of actions under administrative litigation, as well as the exercise of appeals against the Courts acts, shall be carried out within the period established in paragraph (1).

(9) Complaints registered with the electoral bodies in accordance with Article 91 (9) may be submitted within 3 days from the Elections Day.

(10) Requests for the recount of votes shall be submitted within 3 days after public presentation of the preliminary voting results. The Central Electoral Commission or, where appropriate, the Constitutional Court shall order the votes recounting if the presented offences are likely to influence the election results and, subsequently, to influence the allocation of mandates. Shall be considered justified the requests for votes recounting, where a difference of up to 10 % is established between the valid votes casted for electoral competitors/between votes casted during the referendum, as well as when the entered data or corrections made in the votes counting minutes bring into question their compliance and truthfulness.

(11) Submission of complaints shall not suspend the enforcement of acts issued by the electoral bodies or other competent authorities, if administrative acts in electoral field do not provide otherwise or the authority or, where appropriate, the Court has not ordered the suspension of the execution of the disputed acts, under the provisions of Administrative Code.

Article 96. Burden of proof

(1) Each complainant shall prove the facts on which he/she grounds his/her claims and is responsible for the truthfulness and quality of the presented evidence.

(2) The complainant has the obligation to confirm the compliance with the deadline for submitting the complaint in accordance with Article 95.

(3) In the event of a complaint against the decisions of the electoral bodies, the burden of proving the legality rests on these bodies.

Article 97. Competencies of the public authorities regarding the consideration of complaints

(1) When submitting a complaint, shall be taken into account the competences of the public authorities in considering complaints, the type of elections, the alleged infringements and the place where they were committed and the submitted requirements.

(2) Starting from the provisions of this Code and other related normative acts, the competence to consider complaints rests with:

1) District Electoral Councils — complaints submitted under the provisions of this Chapter. The Electoral Councils shall be responsible for considering:

a) requests for cancellation — in respect of electoral subjects that were registered, accredited or confirmed by the concerned Electoral Council;

b) complaints against the decisions of the Precinct Electoral Bureaus approving the minutes on votes counting results and/or of the reports on their activities performed during the electoral period;

c) complaints against the decisions of the first-level District Electoral Councils approving the minutes on voting results at the district level and/or report on their activities performed during the electoral period, and against the decision on the declaration of the elected candidates, the allocation and validation of the mandates of local elected representatives, confirmation of alternate candidate lists in local elections;

2) Central Electoral Commission — complaints submitted under the provisions of this Chapter. The Central Electoral Commission shall be also responsible for considering:

a) requests for cancellation — in respect of electoral subjects registered, accredited or confirmed by the Commission;

b) requests for votes recounting— in the event of disagreement with the preliminary voting results in local elections and local referendums;

c) complaints against decisions of the electoral bodies concerning voting results and/or on approval of the report on their activities performed during the electoral period;

d) complaints against the decisions on declaration of the elected candidates, the allocation and validation of the mandates of local elected representatives, confirmation of alternate candidate lists in local elections;.

3) Audiovisual Council — complaints submitted under the provisions of this Chapter and requests provided for in the Audiovisual Media Services Code.

(3) If the consideration does not fall within the competence of that body, the complaint and the attached materials shall be transmitted for examination in accordance with immediate competence, but no later than 2 days after the date of receipt, except for the case referred to in Article 93 (2) lit. g) and Article 99.

(4) After the dissolution of the Precinct Electoral Bureaus or, where appropriate, of the District Electoral Councils, they shall be substituted by the Central Electoral Commission in the procedures for consideration of electoral complaints.

Article 98. Jurisdiction to consider complaints

(1) According to the administrative litigation procedure, the competent Courts shall consider appeals in electoral field as follows:

1) The Courts in the first hearing shall solve complaints against the actions/inaction and the decisions of the electoral bodies, after examining the preliminary request;

2) The Chisinau Court of Appeal shall solve in the first hearing:

a) complaints against actions/inaction and administrative acts of the Central Electoral Commission;

b) complaints against the actions/omissions and decisions of the Audiovisual Council;

3) Courts of Appeal shall solve the appeals against the Courts acts on the electoral complaints;

4) The Supreme Court of Justice shall solve the appeals against the Courts of Appeal acts adopted on electoral complaints.

(2) Administrative litigation action submitted with the competent Court shall be considered in accordance with the provisions of this Code and the Administrative Code.

(3) During the electoral period, the Courts working schedules shall be arranged in such a way to ensure the submission and consideration of complaints without delay.

(4) Actions related to the guarantee of the freedom of expression right and of the balance between insurance of the right to freedom of expression, defence of honour and dignity, professional reputation and private and family life, submitted during the electoral period shall be considered by the ordinary Court, in accordance with Law No 64/2010 on freedom of expression within the deadlines laid down in Article 100.

Article 99. Resolution of conflicts of jurisdiction

(1) If the same complaint is submitted simultaneously to several electoral bodies, it shall be considered by the electoral body, which is the hierarchically superior to the body of which actions/inactions and decisions are being challenged. Complaints on action/inactions of electoral competitors, participants in the referendum or the initiative groups, as well as of other electoral subjects shall be submitted to the electoral body which has registered, accredited or confirmed them. Conflicts of jurisdiction between electoral bodies shall be examined by the Central Electoral Commission, in accordance with the procedure approved by the Commission under the conditions laid down in Article 91 (10).

(2) If the complaint is addressed to the electoral bodies and to the Court, the complaint shall be considered by the Court, unless the preliminary consideration procedure has not been followed.

(3) In the cases referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2), the electoral bodies which receive the complaints, but do not proceed to their consideration on the merits, declares them inadmissible under the terms of Art. 93.

(4) In the case of complaints regarding the financing of electoral campaigns of the candidates nominated by political parties or electoral blocs of parties, in which is addressed the request to apply the sanction in the form of cancellation of their registration, the electoral body that registered the candidates shall start the consideration of this request only after the complaint resolution by the Central Electoral Commission, in the part related to the facts considered by the complainant as violations of the financing of the electoral campaign, as well as on the ground of findings and solutions issued by the commission, as a result of the consideration.

(5) If the complaint refers to facts considered to be illegal, but their consideration falls within the competence of several authorised bodies (electoral bodies), the body which received the complaint shall initiate the consideration of the complaint based on its competence and on the other reported aspects it shall send it to the responsible authorities in accordance with Article 97 (3).

Article 100. Deadline for complaints consideration

(1) During the electoral period, the competent authorities shall examine the complaints within 3 days of submission, but no later than the Elections Day. When considering the electoral complaints, the Courts shall apply the same time limit, including in appeal proceedings.

(2) By derogation from paragraph (1), the consideration period of time shall not exceed:

a) the deadline established for registration, accreditation or confirmation of the electoral subjects by the electoral bodies;

b) the period of 3 days before the Elections Day, for requests of registration cancellation, accreditation or confirmation of electoral subjects or, where applicable, is simultaneously with the tabulation of voting results and confirmation of the election results;

c) or is simultaneously with the examination of the elections results, in the event of complaints on financing of the electoral campaigns of electoral competitors and of other electoral subjects.

(3) Consideration of complaints on financing of the activity of political parties shall not be subject to the prescription periods laid down in this chapter. When considering complaints concerning the financing of the activities of political parties, shall be applied the rules of this Code and of Law No 294/2007 on political parties, as well as the provisions of the Regulation on the financing of the activities of political parties, approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

(4) Complaints submitted on the Elections Day shall be considered on the same day, with the exceptions laid down in this Chapter and those submitted after the end of voting shall be examined simultaneously with the tabulation and confirmation of voting results, including the validation of the elected candidates mandates.

(5) Requests for votes recounting, submitted in the event of disagreement with the preliminary voting results shall be examined within 3 days of the date of submission. If recounting is being ordered, the procedure shall be organised within 5 days, in accordance with the conditions laid down by the Central Electoral Commission.

(6) Complaints submitted between the two rounds of elections shall be examined within 3 days of the submission or, as the case may be, simultaneously with the establishing and confirmation of elections results and validation of the mandates of candidates elected in the second round of elections.

(7) When considering complaints and disputes, the competent authorities and Courts shall give priority to those related to registration, accreditation or confirmation of electoral subjects, and to those related to refuse or cancellation of their registration, accreditation or confirmation, including those concerning the correctness of Voters' Lists compilation and exercising the right to vote.

(8) The District Electoral Councils, where appropriate, the Constitutional Court confirms the results of the elections, validates the mandates of elected candidates and confirms the lists of alternate candidates, only after the final resolution of complaints.

(9) For justified reasons related to the complexity of the object of the appeal and/or the conduct of the subjects submitting the complaint, the general time-limit may be extended by a maximum of 2 days. That extension shall be applied only if it is communicated, together with the reasons for the extension, to the participants in the litigation in written form, including by email, at the latest on the final day of the expiry of the initial established examination period.

Article 101. Resolution of complaints

(1) Decisions on the complaint shall be adopted by the absolute majority of votes of the members of the electoral body, in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Regulation on the activity of that body.

(2) After considering the dispute, the electoral body is entitled to adopt the following resolution:

- a) to declare the complaint inadmissible;
- b) to accept fully or partially the complaint;
- c) to reject the complaint as unfounded;
- d) to ascertain the violation of the electoral legal framework and/or to order the parties to remove the established infringements;
- e) to apply or request the application of sanctions for the found violations.

(3) In case of challenging the decisions taken by the lower electoral bodies, the superior electoral body shall have the right to:

- a) declare the complaint inadmissible;
- b) reject the complaint and maintain in force the decision of the lower electoral body;
- c) to admit the complaint and amend or, where appropriate, repeal fully or partially the decision of the lower electoral body, issuing a new decision.

(4) In case of complaints concerning the coverage of elections by media service providers, the Audiovisual Council shall adopt decisions and undertake necessary measures in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Audiovisual Media Services Code, with the exception of time limits and procedures that shall be applied in accordance with this Code.

(5) The decisions of the electoral bodies and decisions of the Audiovisual Council adopted under the conditions of this Chapter shall be enforceable immediately after being adopted, except for the cases of suspending their enforcement. Enforcement of the electoral bodies decisions adopted under the conditions laid down in Article 102 (5) shall be suspended de jure, from the moment of challenging the legality of those decisions.

(6) Courts shall adopt and pronounce judgments and decisions, as well as issue the resolution in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Code and the Civil Procedure Code.

(7) Judicial acts issued under the conditions of this chapter shall be final and enforceable as soon as they are being pronounced, unless their enforcement is being suspended.

Section 2

Liability for violations of electoral law

Article 102. Legal liability

(2) Under paragraph (1) of this Article, the decision on the withdrawal or changes in the list of candidates is to be taken by the political party or the electoral bloc of parties which submitted the list of candidates, in compliance with Article 7 (2) lit. b) of Law No 5/2006 on ensuring equal opportunities for men and women and of Article 68 (3) of this Code, and shall be submitted to the Commission.

(3) The lists of candidates shall be amended by the decision of the Central Electoral Commission in maximum 3 days.

(4) The District Electoral Council shall refuse to make changes which do not meet the requirements laid down in paragraphs (1) and (2), by issuing a decision to that effect.

Article 166. Withdrawal of the independent candidate

(1) An independent candidate is entitled to withdraw his/her application, no later than 10 days before the Elections Days. In that case, the request for the withdrawal of the independent candidate must be submitted personally to the corresponding District Electoral Council.

(2) The decision on the withdrawal of an independent candidate from the race shall be adopted by the corresponding District Electoral Commission no later than 3 days after the request has been made, in accordance with paragraph (1).

Article 167. Voters' Lists

The Voters' Lists for local elections shall be compiled in accordance with Chapter VI, to be applied accordingly.

Article 168. Electoral campaign

(1) The electoral campaign for local elections shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VIII, to be applied accordingly.

(2) In the case of the second round, the electoral campaign shall begin on the date set by the Central Electoral Commission, but no later than 10 days before the date of the corresponding elections.

Article 169. Ballot papers

For elections to the rayon, towns (municipalities), villages (communes) councils and Mayors of towns (municipalities), villages (communes) shall be drawn separate ballot papers in accordance with Chapter IX, to be applied accordingly.

Article 170. Voting

Voting in local elections shall be conducted under the conditions laid down in Chapter X, to be applied accordingly.

Article 171. Votes counting and establishing the elections results

(1) Votes counting and establishing the results of Parliamentary Elections shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XI, to be applied accordingly. Shall be drawn up separate minutes for the elections of the Mayor and the elections of local councillors.

(2) The number of votes cast for each candidate running for Mayor or councillor positions, full name of the elected Mayors and councillors, name of the political party, electoral bloc of parties, which nominated them, or the mention "independent candidate" shall be entered into the minutes drawn up by the electoral councils and bureaus.

Article 172. Allocation of Councillors Seats

(1) The councillors' seats in rayon, town (municipality), village (commune) councils shall be allocated by the corresponding District Electoral Councils.

(2) Seats in the council shall be allocated to political parties, to electoral blocs of parties by dividing successively the number of valid votes cast for each political party, and electoral bloc of parties by 1, 2, 3, 4... etc., up to the figure that corresponds to the number of seats established for the respective electoral district.

(3) From the results of all the divisions and from the number of valid votes cast for independent candidates, it shall be selected in descending order as many numbers as the amount of seats to be allocated in the electoral district. The number of mandates assigned to a political party, electoral bloc of parties, depends on the quantity of numbers contained in that descending row.

(4) An independent candidate shall be considered elected if the number of votes cast for him/her fits within descending row.

(5) Council seats shall be allocated to candidates running for council in the order of their registration on the lists, beginning with the list which received most votes.

(6) If there is more than one candidate with the same number of votes for the last non-allocated seat, the District Electoral Council shall allocate the seat by drawing of lots. This fact shall be recorded in the minutes.

(7) If a political party, electoral bloc of parties is being allocated a number of mandates exceeding the number of candidates on its list, the extra numbers from the descending row of the respective organisation shall be eliminated and replaced by descending numbers of other candidates.

(8) If only independent candidates were included in the ballot paper for the election of the councils, the District Electoral Council shall draw up a list candidates with the number of votes received by them in descending order and allocate each candidate one mandate until the mandates are being finished.

(9) Candidates included in the lists but not elected shall be declared alternate candidates. When a councillor mandate belonging to a political party, electoral bloc of parties becomes vacant before the end of term, it will be allocated to one of the alternate candidates of the respective political party or electoral bloc of parties, in the order of their inclusion in the list. If the list of alternate candidates is finished, the replacement of the vacant seat shall be done by restoring the descending row, excluding the respective electoral competitor and including the decreasing number of another electoral competitor in the row.

(10) If the seat allocated to an independent candidate becomes vacant, the vacancy shall be completed by restoring the descending row, excluding the number belonging to the respective candidate and including the number following in the row.

(11) If only independent candidates are included on the ballot papers, in the event of a vacant seat, the alternate candidate shall be allocated the seat, under paragraph (10).

(12) Seats to alternate candidates shall be allocated by the Central Electoral Commission, under this Article, the Regulation approved by the Central Electoral Commission decision and based on documents held by the Commission.

Article 173. Election of Mayor

(1) A candidate running for Mayor shall be considered elected if he/she obtained more than half of the valid votes cast by all participating voters.

(2) If none of candidates running for Mayor received more than half of the valid votes cast, within 2 weeks, a second-round of elections shall be conducted between the two candidates who received the highest number of votes. These two candidates are listed on the ballot paper in descending order as per the number of votes received in the first round. If several candidates obtained an equal number of votes in the first round, the District Electoral Council shall conduct the draw the lots, recording that fact in a minutes.

(3) The date of the second round of elections shall be set by the decision of the Central Electoral Commission, immediately after processing the voting results of the first round of elections, but not later than 10 days before the respective elections. The information on the conduct of the second round of elections shall be made public by the Central Electoral Commission within 24 hours after the date decision was approved.

(4) The candidate who obtained the highest number of votes in the second round of elections shall be declared as elected. If both candidates obtained the same number of votes, the candidate who has received more votes during the first round of elections shall be considered as elected. If both candidates have received the same number of votes in the first round of elections, the District Electoral Council shall conduct the draw the lots, recording that fact in a minutes.

(5) If one of the candidates withdraws, the remaining candidate shall be considered as elected if he/she received at least half of votes of the voters who have participated in elections.

Article 174. Confirmation of the legality of elections and mandate validation

(1) The District Electoral Councils of the first-level administrative-territorial units shall submit the minutes on elections results to the second-level District Electoral Councils or, where appropriate, to the Central Electoral Commission.

(2) District Electoral Council, within 10 days after receiving the reports, minutes and other electoral documents from the Precinct Electoral Bureaus, where appropriate, from the first-level District Electoral Councils, but not before the Courts have made final decisions on complaints submitted according to the established procedures, confirms or denies by a decision the legality of the elections in the concerned electoral district and shall forward it, within 24 hours after adoption, to the Central Electoral Commission and the concerned second-level District Electoral Councils, that shall publish the final results.

(3) Once the legality of elections has been confirmed, the concerned District Electoral Councils shall establish the elected candidates, shall allocate and validate the mandates of the councillors and Mayors, and shall confirm the list of alternate candidates, by adopting a decision to that effect. The person elected at the same time for the position of Mayor and councillor shall submit to the District Electoral Council his/her consent to be validated in one of those two positions.

(4) The council shall be considered legally constituted when mandates of at least  $2/3$  of the total number of councillors are being validated.

(5) The badge for the local elected official is prepared and issued in line with the procedure established by the Law no. 256/2004 on the adoption of the Regulation on the local elected official badge and the Regulation on the local elected official pin.

Article 175. Invalid Elections

(1) Elections shall be considered invalid in certain districts if less than  $1/4$  of the number of persons registered in the Voters' Lists have participated. In the second round, the elections shall be declared invalid if less than  $1/5$  of the number of people registered in the Voters' Lists have participated.

(2) The decision on the declaration of invalid elections shall be adopted by the Central Electoral Commission on the basis of acts submitted by the District Electoral Councils.

Article 176. Void Elections

Elections shall be declared void if infringements of this Code have been committed during the election procedures and if those violations affected the results of voting and seats allocation. A decision in this regard shall be adopted by the Central Electoral Commission based on the decisions taken by appropriate District Electoral Councils.

Article 177. Repeated voting

(1) If in certain districts or polling stations, elections have been declared invalid or void, the Central Electoral Commission shall order the organization, within 2 weeks, of repeated voting with the same voters' lists, same candidates and the same Electoral Councils and Bureaus.

(2) Electoral competitors found guilty of committing infringements of this Code shall be sanctioned or withdrawn from the ballot papers based on the final decision and the electoral officials from the electoral councils and bureaus which committed such infringements shall be replaced.

(3) Repeated voting shall be conducted in strict accordance with the provisions of Chapters X and XI and shall be considered valid regardless of voters' turnout.

Article 178. New elections

(1) New elections shall be conducted if:

a) if the council has been dissolved or its composition has reduced by more than 1/3 out of the number established by the Central Electoral Commission under the terms of this Code and Law No 436/2006 on local public administration;

b) if the Mayor's term of office has early terminated in accordance with Law No 768/2000 on the status of local elected official;

c) if even after repeated voting the councillor and/or the Mayor were not elected;

d) if upon administrative-territorial reorganisation, in the newly established administrative-territorial units it is necessary to elect the local public administration authorities (councillors, Mayors).

(2) In the last year before the end of the office term new elections for the position of Mayor shall not be organized. New elections for the position of the local councillor shall not be organised during the last half of its term of office.

(3) If one of the circumstances set forth in paragraph (1) arises, the local public administration authority shall notify in writing about this fact the Central Electoral Commission within 15 days after the circumstance occurred.

(4) The Central Electoral Commission shall set the date of New Elections no later than 30 days after establishing the occurrence of the circumstances referred to in paragraph (1), and no earlier than 60 days before the Elections Day, provided that new elections will be held simultaneously, at most twice a year, in spring and in autumn.

5) New elections shall be conducted in compliance with the provisions of this Code.

Article 179. Partial elections

(1) If, after elections, the established number of councillors has not been elected, the Central Electoral Commission shall, within 2 weeks, call for Partial Elections in one or more districts.

(2) In order to fill the vacant mandates, Partial Elections shall be conducted on the terms of Titles I, II and V.

(3) The date of the Partial Elections shall be set by the decision of the Central Electoral Commission at least 60 days before the Elections Days.

TITLE VI

(1) To initiate a Republican Referendum, citizens shall establish an initiative group at a meeting attended by at least 300 citizens eligible to vote. At least 10 days before the meeting, the organizers shall notify, in writing, the Central Electoral Commission and the local public administration authority of the locality where the meeting is to be held, about the time, venue, and purpose of this meeting.

(2) Before opening the meeting, the members of the meeting are being registered by filling out in a list, the last name, first name, domicile and apply their signatures.

(3) A Chairperson and a Secretary of the meeting shall be elected. The agenda for the meeting shall include the discussion of the appropriateness of organising the Republican Referendum and the formulation of the questions on which the voters shall decide.

(4) If the proposal for holding a referendum is being adopted with the majority of votes of the participants attending the meeting, an initiative group shall be established to administer the signatures collecting. The initiative group shall be composed of at least 100 citizens eligible to vote. The members of the group shall elect from among its members the executive board, including a Chairperson, a Deputy Chairperson and a Secretary who will represent the group and manage its activity.

(5) During the meeting shall be drawn up the minutes, containing the results of voting on the issues included in the agenda. The Chairperson and Secretary of the meeting shall sign the meeting acts: list of participants, the minutes, the accurately and correctly formulated questions to be addressed to voters during the referendum or, as the case may be, the draft Law, as well as the list of initiative group members including their identity data.

Article 192. Registration of the initiative group

(1) The initiative group for holding the Republican Referendum shall be registered by the Central Electoral Commission. For registration, the following documents shall be submitted to the Commission:

- a) acts of citizens' meeting where was established the initiative group;
- b) the statement of the members of the initiative group on the consent to participate in the collection of signatures of referendum supporters;
- c) the request for registration of the initiative group.

(2) Within 15 days after the filing of the documents referred to in paragraph (1) or after the receipt of the opinion in accordance with Article 193 (3) and (5), the Central Electoral Commission shall adopt a decision on the registration of the initiative group or the refusal to register it. The decision on registration of the initiative group sets out the period for collecting the signatures of the Republican Referendum supporters, which may not be less than 2 months and not more than 3 months.

(3) After the registration of the initiative group, its members shall receive badges and signature collecting lists, according to the templates set by the Central Electoral Commission.

(4) Information on the registration of the initiative group and the issues to be submitted to the Republican Referendum shall be made public through Media.

Article 193. Specific requirements for the initiation of the legislative referendum by citizens

(1) The initiative group for the conduct of the legislative referendum shall submit to the Central Electoral Commission the text of the draft Law in Romanian Language, drafted in accordance with the requirements of the legislative technique provided for by Law No 100/2017 on normative acts, as well as the information note.

(2) After receiving the documents of the initiative group for the conduct of the legislative referendum, the Central Electoral Commission shall, within a maximum of 3 days, forward the draft law and the information note to the Ministry of Justice for an opinion and expertise of the project.

(3) The Ministry of Justice shall, within 30 days, carry out the procedure for offering an opinion and expertise on the draft law, in accordance with the legal requirements relating the drafting of a normative act.

(4) The initiative group for the conduct of the legislative referendum may adjust the draft law to the requirements set out in the opinion of the Ministry of Justice, provided that they do not substantially change the concept approved at the citizens' meeting.

(5) In accordance with the opinion of the Ministry of Justice, the Central Electoral Commission shall adopt, under the Article 192 (2), a decision on registration of the initiative group or the refusal to register it.

Article 194. Collecting signatures

(1) From the date of initiative group registration, but no earlier than the date of issue of the signatures collecting lists, its members have the right to collect the signatures of the supporters of the Republican Referendum on the signatures collecting lists.

(2) Signatures shall be collected under the conditions laid down in this Chapter and by the regulation approved by the Central Electoral Commission for that purpose. The provisions of Article 65 shall be applied correspondingly, to the extent that they do not contravene the special requirements related to the collection of signatures of the supporters of the republican referendum.

Article 195. Specific requirements for signatures collecting lists

(1) On each sheet of the signatures collecting lists shall be printed the question on which the voters will have to decide during the Republican Referendum. It is prohibited to collect signatures on lists which do not contain the text of the questions.

(2) In Constitutional or Legislative Referendum, the draft law shall be printed on each signatures collecting list. If it is voluminous, the draft law shall be printed separately and shall be attached to the signatures collecting list, which shall include the name of the draft and the information note or its summary.

(3) In Constitutional Referendum, the signatures collecting list will contain only signatures of the supporters who have their domicile in the same second-level administrative-territorial unit.

(4) A supporter of a Republican Referendum shall be only the person who, at the time of affixing signature on the signatures collecting list, is eligible to vote.

(5) On the signatures collecting list, the supporter of the Republican Referendum fills in the personal data by himself/herself and affixes his/her signature. If the supporter of the Republican Referendum cannot, for objective reasons, fill in the required data in person, that information shall be fill in by the collector, the signature on the list being directly affixed by the supporter and, if this is not possible, by a representative of the latter.

Article 196. Responsibility for the accuracy of the signatures collecting lists

(1) The collector shall be responsible for the authenticity of the data on the drawn up signatures collecting list. On each signatures collecting list, the collector shall make a note attesting that the signatures have been collected by him/her personally and that he/she confirms the authenticity of the signatures and then signs it.

(2) The collector is required to warn every citizen that he/she is entitled to sign only on a single signatures collecting list.

(3) For the violation of the provisions establishing the procedure for collecting signatures, as well as the provisions concerning the protection of personal data, the collector is liable according to the law.

Article 197. Submission and verification of signatures collecting lists

(1) No later than the last day of the period for collecting signatures, the initiative group draws up minutes, in which indicates the date of registration of the initiative group, the number of collected signatures and the closing date for the collection of signatures. The minutes, signed by the members of the initiative group, and the signatures collecting lists shall be submitted to the Central Electoral Commission. After receiving and recording signatures collecting lists, the Commission shall not permit the submission of additional signatures collecting lists.

(2) Within 30 days of submission of the signatures collecting lists, the Central Electoral Commission shall verify the authenticity of the signatures on the submitted lists, within the limit of the number laid down in Article 183. In order to check the signatures collecting lists, the electoral body shall use the electronic application.

(3) Members of the initiative group executive board and the accredited observers shall be entitled to assist in verification of the signatures collecting lists submitted to the Commission. The members of the executive board of the initiative group shall only be entitled to assist in checking the signatures collecting lists which they have drawn up. The requirements for assisting at the verification of the signatures collecting lists shall be established in the guide laid down in Article 67 (2).

(4) After checking the signatures collecting lists, the Central Electoral Commission shall issue a decision on the initiation of the Republican Referendum. The Central Electoral Commission minutes on the verification of the signatures collecting lists and the decision on the initiation of the referendum shall be sent to the Permanent Bureau of the Parliament within 3 days.

(5) If the necessary number of signatures has not been submitted, the Central Electoral Commission shall adopt a decision rejecting the proposal to organise the Republican Referendum and cancel the registration of the initiative group.

(6) The signatures collecting list shall be invalidated entirely if:

- a) is of a different template or series (number) than that issued to the collector by the Commission;
- b) is not being signed by the collector;
- c) does not contain the text of the question.
