CHAPTER II
ELECTION ADMINISTRATION OF GEORGIA AND ITS AUTHORITY

Article 7. Status, system and composition of the election administration of Georgia

1. The election administration of Georgia is an independent administrative body which, within its authority, shall be independent from other government agencies and shall be established in accordance with this Law. The power and rule of formation of the election administration of Georgia are governed by the present Law.
2. The election administration of Georgia is composed of:
  - a) the CEC and its Secretariat;
  - b) the SEC and its Secretariat;
  - c) the District election commissions (DECs);
  - d) the Precinct election commissions (PECs);
3. The CEC constitutes the supreme body of the election administration of Georgia, which, within its competence, shall conduct and control election commissions at all levels, and ensure the uniform application of the election legislation throughout the whole territory of Georgia.
4. In the case that general elections and the elections of the Supreme Council of Adjara are conducted simultaneously, district and precinct election commissions, formed for general elections, shall carry out functions of district and precinct commissions.

5. Members of the CEC and the SEC, their Secretariat employees and the members of DEC, except for assisting staff or part-time employees and DEC members as provided by paragraph 5 of Article 19 of this Law, shall represent public servants and they shall be covered by the Law of Georgian on Public Service, unless otherwise determined the present Law.

Article 8. Election commission work regulations

1. Work regulations of the election commission shall be determined by this Law and by the relevant commission regulation, which shall be approved by CEC decree.
2. A session of the election commission shall be called upon request of the chairperson of the commission or deputy chairperson.
3. A session is authorized, if attended by a majority of the total number of the election commission members.
4. The decision of the commission shall be considered adopted, if supported by a majority of the members present at the session (unless this Law provides for a higher quorum), but not less than one-third of the total number of the election commission members. Decisions of the election commission regarding decisions made by lower election commissions, including nullification of election district/precinct results, opening of packages received from the election commission and counting of election ballot papers, shall be adopted by not less than two-third of those present at the session.
5. In case of an equal number of votes, a chairperson shall have the casting vote.
6. Issues of human resources shall be resolved at the session by a majority vote of the total number of the election commission members.
7. Minutes of sessions shall be drawn up and signed by the chairperson of the session and the secretary of the election commission.
8. The session minutes shall be elaborated within 1 day after the session.
9. A member of the election commission, objecting the decision of the commission, shall be entitled to express his/her dissenting opinion in writing, which shall be attached to the minutes of the session. At the same time, a member having a dissenting opinion, shall respect and obey the decision delivered by the commission. He/she shall have no right to impede, by his/her action/omission, the execution of the decision.
10. The election commission shall accept, issue and register election documentation until 18:00 of the working day, except for cases envisaged by this Law.
11. Upon receipt of an application/complaint, the date and time of its receipt shall be noted in the registration book of the election commission, as well as on the confirmation of receipt issued to the applicant/complainant. The commission shall consider the application/complaint and deliver appropriate decision.
12. Receipt of any document from the election commission shall be confirmed by the signature of the applicant in the registration book.
13. The election commission shall be entitled not to consider the application/complaint if the deadline and procedure for its submission is breached.

14. Election documentation shall be available to the public. It is the election commission's duty to make election documentation and election information available to interested persons within 2 days of that person placing a request. In case the copies are requested, the amount of costs and the procedures for its payment shall be regulated in accordance with the legislation of Georgia.
15. The session of the election commission shall be open. Members of higher election commission and commission representatives, secretariat staff of the respective and upper election commissions, representatives of media accredited in the relevant commission, one representative of the contestant in the relevant commission, as well as one observer from domestic observer organization registered with the relevant commission, one observer from international organization registered with the CEC, with an interpreter, shall be authorized to attend the session of the election commission. In the case of breach of order and obstruction of the work of the election commission, the commission shall be authorized to make the decision to remove the person violating the order, which shall be recorded in the minutes of the session.
16. The following individuals are authorized to remain at the polling place:
  - a) Members of the CEC, district and precinct election commissions;
  - b) Representatives of the CEC and district election commissions;
  - c) Representative of the election subject;
  - d) Representatives of the press and media, registered with the respective commissions;
  - e) Observers.
17. Everyone authorized to stay at the polling place shall carry a badge (certificate) indicating his/her identity and title.
18. In case of breach of order and obstruction of the work of the election commission, the election commission shall make a decision on the removal of the person, violating the order, from the administrative building, as well as from the session. This order shall be recorded in the minutes of the session.
19. A member of the election commission shall participate in the activities of the commission from the very day of his/her appointment (election) in the relevant commission.
20. A member of the district or precinct election commission shall sign the summary protocol of polling or election results and, in case he/she objects to the information reflected in the protocol, the member is authorized to indicate such in the relevant section of the summary protocol of polling and election results and attach a written dissenting opinion to the protocol.
21. A member of the election commission is not the representative of his appointer/voter. He/she shall be independent in his/her activities and shall act only in accordance with the Constitution of Georgia, law and relevant legal acts. Any pressure upon the member of the election commission, or interference in his/her activities, with the aim of influencing his/her decision shall be prohibited and is punishable by law.
22. If the commission chairperson and a deputy chairperson, or a commission secretary, are temporarily unable to carry out the duties determined by the present Law, and pursuant to the same Law, an action falling within the exclusive competence of the chairperson or the secretary is to be carried out, the commission, in accordance with the procedures established by the present Law, shall elect without delay an acting chairperson or a secretary among his staff for electing relevant officials. The power of the acting chairperson of the commission shall be ceased once the commission chairperson or deputy chairperson are able to carry out their functions, and the authority of the commission acting secretary shall be ceased, once the commission secretary is able to carry out his/her duties.

23. If the election commission does not have a chairperson or a deputy chairperson, the secretary of the commission shall call the session for electing the commission chairperson and shall chair the commission until the election of the chairperson, and if the commission does not have a secretary, the commission session shall be called and chaired by the senior member of the commission until the election of the chairperson.
24. In case of the absence of the commission chairperson or on his/her instruction, a deputy chairperson of the commission shall carry out his/her duties.
25. Persons authorized to be present at the polling place shall be entitled to conduct photo and video shooting of the polling place, except for the polling booths, as long as that person does not obstruct the work of the commission.

Article 9. Remuneration

1. In the course of the elections/referendum, except for the by-elections, members and head officials of the CEC and the DECs, as well as the employees of the CEC Secretariat and the legal entity of public law– Center for Electoral Systems Development, Reforms and Trainings shall receive double remuneration.
  - 1<sup>1</sup>. Double remuneration as defined by paragraph 1 of this Article during the by-elections shall be paid to the members and head officials of those election district DECs, where the by-elections are held.
2. Members and head officials of the PEC (based on the ordinance of the upper DEC) shall receive salaries from the funds allocated for the conduct of elections from the 30th day prior to the Election Day, until the upper DEC draws up the summary protocol of polling results.
3. The remuneration amount paid to the head officials and the members of the CEC, district and precinct election commissions, as well as the CEC Secretariat staff shall be determined by the CEC.
4. A salary received in accordance with the present Article by a PEC member, who is included in the unified database of socially vulnerable families, shall not be included in the family gross income and he/she shall continue to receive a state funding.

Article 10. Composition of the CEC and procedures for electing the CEC Chairperson

1. The CEC shall be composed of its chairperson and 12 members. The CEC chairperson simultaneously acts as a member of the CEC. Termination of the authority of the CEC chairperson concurrently results in the termination of his/her membership. 5 members of the CEC shall be elected by the Parliament of Georgia, upon nomination by the President of Georgia, and 7 members are appointed by parties, according to the procedure prescribed by this Law.

2. The CEC chairperson shall be elected, upon the nomination by the President of Georgia, by the CEC members appointed by the parties (except for a member appointed by the party obtaining the best results in the previous parliamentary elections) or by the Parliament of Georgia, in a manner prescribed by this Article. The term of his/her office shall be 5 years.
3. No later than 30 days prior to the expiration of the tenure of the CEC chairperson, and in case of termination of his/her office - no later than 15 days after its termination, the President of Georgia, as a result of consultations with local non-entrepreneurial (non-commercial) legal entities, shall submit to the CEC 3 candidates for the position of the CEC chairperson.
4. The CEC chairperson's candidate shall be a capable citizen of Georgia, who have attained the age of 25, are non-partisan, have higher education, are fluent in the official language of Georgia, meet the requirements of paragraph 5 of Article 12 of this Law, this paragraph and Article 17 of the Law of Georgia on Public Service, hold a working experience of not less than 3 years and hold a certificate of the election administration official.
5. The decision on the election of the CEC chairperson shall be made by the CEC members appointed by parties within 5 days after the submission of the list of candidates (except for members appointed by the party with the best results in the previous parliamentary elections). The session shall be convened and presided by the senior member defined by this paragraph. Voting in the election of the CEC chairperson shall be secret. Each voting member shall have one vote. All three members shall be put to vote simultaneously. Any candidate that receives 4 or more vote shall be the CEC chairperson. Minutes of the session and the CEC ordinance on the election of the CEC chairperson shall be signed by the chairperson of the session/senior member of the CEC.
6. If within the terms stipulated by paragraph 5 of this Article, the CEC chairperson fails to be elected, the Parliament of Georgia, within 7 days, shall elect the CEC chairperson out of the same candidates nominated by the President of Georgia.
7. The CEC ordinance on the election of its chairperson shall be sent to the Parliament of Georgia within 7 days, and in cases as provided by paragraph 6 of this Article, the decision of the Parliament of Georgia shall be submitted to the CEC within 7 days.

Article 11. Election of the deputy chairperson and the secretary of the CEC

1. Not less than 2 members of the commission are authorized to nominate the deputy chairperson and the secretary of the CEC.
2. The same candidate can be nominated only twice.
3. If, within the set term, the commission fails to elect the deputy chairperson and the secretary, the duties of the said official shall be fulfilled by the member of the commission receiving the highest votes during the elections, and in case of an equal number of votes - the person defined by casting lots.

Article 12. Election of CEC members

1. The President of Georgia shall select and submit to the Parliament of Georgia 5 candidates for CEC membership in accordance with the procedures envisaged by this Article.
2. Selection of candidates for CEC membership shall be open.
3. No later than 30 days prior the expiration of the term of the CEC member, and in case the vacancy becomes available – no later than 15 days, the President of Georgia shall issue an ordinance on the conduct of the competition and setting up the competition commission. Half of the members of the commission should be composed of local non-government organization (NGO) representatives. Competition documents shall be submitted no later than 14 days after the announcement of the competition. If the above terms coincide with the election period, the President of Georgia shall announce the competition no later than 7 days following the declaration of the final results of election. The authority of the member of the CEC shall be terminated once a new member is elected.
4. Candidate for CEC membership should be a capable citizen of Georgia, have attained the age of 25, be non-partisan, have higher education, be fluent in the official language of Georgia, hold a working experience of not less than 3 years and hold certificate of the election administration official.
5. The following shall not be elected/appointed as members of the CEC:
  - a) a person who does not hold a certificate of election administration official;
  - b) a person who has been dismissed from a position at the election administration by the election commission or the court, due to a breach of the election legislation of Georgia;
  - c) a person whose violation of the election legislation of Georgia was confirmed by the court;
  - d) a person who has been convicted of a crime and whose previous convictions has not been expunged;
6. If, within the terms defined by the present Law, a minimum of 2 persons are not nominated for a vacant position, the competition shall continue until minimum 2 persons are nominated for the vacant position.
7. The list of candidates shall be published within 2 days of the deadline to nominate candidates.
8. The competition commission shall submit to the President of Georgia no less than 2 and no more than 3 candidates for CEC membership for each vacancy no later than 5 days after the deadline of the nomination of candidates. No later than 7 days after the selection of candidates the President of Georgia shall make a decision on the selection of candidates and submit to the Parliament of Georgia 2 candidates for one vacant CEC member position.

9. The Parliament of Georgia shall elect members of the CEC by a roll-call vote no later than 14 days following the submission by the President of Georgia of candidates for CEC membership to the Parliament of Georgia. Each candidate shall be put to vote separately. The CEC member shall be deemed elected if supported by a majority of members of the Parliament of Georgia. If the number of individuals is more than the number of positions to be elected, the candidate with the best results shall be considered elected. If a winner cannot be revealed, due to an equal number of votes, the candidates are immediately voted upon until a winner is revealed among them.
10. If, as a result of voting, all vacancies are not filled, the rest of the candidates shall be put to vote again. If the vacancy is not yet filled, the President of Georgia, within 3 days, shall submit to the Parliament of Georgia 2 candidates for each unfilled vacancy from other candidates participating in the competition. If the vacancy is still not filled, no later than within 3 days, a competition is announced for the rest of the vacancies and the nomination procedure starts over.
11. The same candidate can be nominated only twice.
12. Following an early termination of the term of office of a CEC member elected by the Parliament of Georgia, with the purpose of the election of his/her substitute, during the nearest session week of the Parliament of Georgia the President of Georgia shall once again submit to the Parliament of Georgia those candidates receiving not less than a majority of votes of the members of the Parliament of Georgia, or announce the competition within 3 days. The same rule shall apply in case of absence of such candidate.
13. The ordinance of the Parliament of Georgia on the election of the CEC member shall be submitted to the CEC within 7 days of its adoption.

Article 13. Procedure for appointment and termination of the term of office of CEC members appointed by parties

1. 7 members of the CEC shall be appointed by the parties, according to the procedures provided for by this Article.
2. Each member of the CEC shall be appointed by those political unions receiving funds from the state budget, according to Article 30 of the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Unions of Citizens.
3. If the number of the parties stipulated by paragraph 2 of this Article is more than 7, members are appointed by the 7 parties receiving the most funding. If some parties have equal funding, the advantage is given to the party having the best results in the elections. If parties that united in one election bloc receive an equal funding, advantage is given to the party which is ahead in the list of bloc members.
4. If the number of the parties stipulated by paragraph 2 of this Article is less than 7, it shall be filled to 7 by the parties having the best following results (based on the decreasing set of numbers of the received votes), that participated in the elections independently or were united in an election bloc and were on the top of the list of the bloc members (if the party named first refuses to appoint a commission member, this right shall be conferred to the second party, etc.), provided that they received more than 3% of votes at the elections. If, after these procedures, the number of parties authorized to appoint commission members is not filled to 7, all parties referred to in this paragraph, based on their results, shall have a right to appoint one more member of the commission in order to fill the number of the aforementioned members to 7.

5. In the case of a termination of funding from the state budget to a party, or in the case that another party receives more funding, the authority of the commission member appointed by that party shall be terminated and the number of members shall be filled to 7 by the representative of the party (parties) receiving more funding. If there is no such party, or if that party (parties) refuses to appoint a member, the procedure determined by paragraph 6 of this Article shall apply.
6. A party shall have the right to withdraw the CEC member appointed by it. Withdrawal shall be prohibited from the day of calling of the election until the sum up of its final results. The party shall be entitled to appoint a new CEC member within the aforementioned period only in case of dismissal or death of the appointed member.

Election commission member shall not be entitled to open the filled out ballot paper(s) or otherwise violate the secrecy of the ballot;
  - e) no more than one voter at a time shall be allowed to be at the ballot box;
  - f) member of commission supervising the ballot box and special envelopes shall be permanently present by the ballot box. He/she shall keep the ballot box section for inserting envelopes locked and shall open it only after making sure that the voter has only one envelope at hand;
  - g) after the end of polling, the ballot box section for inserting envelopes shall be sealed.
- 2<sup>1</sup>. If, during the verification of voter's identity in the voters' list according to paragraph 2 sub-paragraph "b" of this article, it is confirmed that registration data (except for the picture) in the presented document corresponds with the data in the voters' list, however the registrar considers the voter not to match with the picture in the table list, the registrar addresses the PEC chairperson, which after fulfilling the requirements of the paragraph 2<sup>2</sup> will decide the issue of participation.
- 2<sup>2</sup>. If the PEC chairperson:

- a) Confirms the incompliance mentioned in the paragraph 2<sup>1</sup>, the PEC secretary will make a record on the specific page of the logbook where he/she will indicate the fact of incompliance, voter's name, surname and voter's number in the voters' list. This record will be confirmed by the signatures of PEC chairperson and Secretary. The secretary will attach the photocopy of the document presented by the voter, which will be confirmed by secretary's signature;
  - b) Does not confirm the incompliance mentioned above in the paragraph 2<sup>1</sup>, but the registrar, who revealed the incompliance, does not agree with the PEC chairperson, he/she will record the opinion on the specific page of the logbook and confirm that with signature. After that, the PEC secretary will include voter's name, surname and voter's number in the voters' list in the logbook and attach the photocopy of the document presented by the voter, which will be confirmed by secretary's signature.
3. It is restricted for any other person to be present at the moment of filling out the ballot paper. A voter unable to fill out the ballot paper independently shall be entitled to ask any person for help in the secret polling booth except for:
    - a) a member of the election commission;
    - b) a candidate;
    - c) a representative of an election subject;
    - d) an observer.
  4. If a voter or a member of the PEC spoils a ballot paper or a special envelope, he/she should inform the chairperson of the PEC on this, submit the spoiled ballot paper/special envelope and receive a new one. The spoiled ballot paper/special envelope shall be cut a corner in the presence of the voter, inscribed "spoiled", signed by the chairperson of the PEC and stored separately.
  5. Members of the PEC and persons authorized to be present at the polling place shall be entitled to request the voter, before he/she goes into the polling booth and prior to placing the ballot paper(s) into the special envelope, to show them that he/she has the exact number of ballot papers and special envelope at hand as defined by this Law. The voter shall comply with this request.
  6. On the polling day, the PEC secretary shall count the number of signatures of voters participating in the polling in the list of voters twice - at 12:00 and at 17:00, and record the number in the public display protocol and the PEC logbook.
  7. If the seal of the ballot box is damaged during polling, the PEC shall stop the voting process and make a decision with an ordinance on sealing the ballot box again and resumption of polling.
  8. The polling place shall be closed at 20:00. Voters standing in the line by that time shall have a right to cast their votes. For this purpose one of the election commission members, tasked by the PEC chairperson, shall register the names and last names of voters waiting in the line and inform the PEC chairperson about their number, while the commission secretary records the quantity of voters standing in the line in the book of records. The PEC chairperson announces that only voters standing in the line are entitled to vote.

Article 66. Mobile voting

1. Mobile voting procedure shall start at 9:00 and end at 19:00. The mobile ballot box shall be returned to the polling station no later than 20:00.
2. Persons defined in Article 33 of this Law are authorized to cast a ballot through mobile voting.
3. From 9:00 of the polling day, the PEC chairperson provides the members of election commission accompanying the mobile ballot box with the list of mobile ballot boxes, special envelopes and necessary amount of ballot papers signed and sealed with a special stamp by the registrar of voters.
4. Two members of the PEC selected through casting lots and persons authorized to be present at the polling place shall participate in the polling conducted in accordance with the location of voters at their own will.
5. If a vehicle is used during mobile voting, the PEC shall assign space in the car for two observers selected through casting lots among persons authorized to be present at the polling place.
6. A voter shall cast a ballot through the mobile voting in case his/her actual location is assigned to the territory of the election precinct in which he/she is registered.
7. One transparent mobile ballot box shall be used to conduct polling according to the residence of voters. The secretary of the PEC shall include in the logbook the amount of ballot papers and special envelopes issued to the members of the election commission accompanying the mobile ballot box. After the end of polling, the amount of ballot papers and special envelopes in the ballot box and unused ones shall be summed up to make a comparison thereafter. After the conclusion of the above procedure, unused ballot papers and special envelopes shall be cut an edge, inscribed "spoiled", signed by the chairperson of the PEC and stored separately. All procedures related to the polling at the polling place shall apply to mobile voting; authorities of a representative and an observer are also identical.
8. If in cases envisaged in Article 33 of this Law, both the place of a voter's registration and an actual location of a voter are assigned to one and the same election district, the voter shall have a right to participate in elections conducted under the proportional and majoritarian election systems and relevant ballot paper and special envelope shall be issued to him/her. Otherwise, the voter shall have a right to participate only in elections conducted under the proportional election system.
9. Polling procedures defined by paragraph 8 of this Article shall be conducted by the PEC on the territory of which a military base, hospital or other inpatient medical institution or a penitentiary establishment is located and within which a voter is located.

10. After the conclusion of polling, the mobile ballot box shall be sealed in such a way to make it impossible to open the box without damaging the seal.
11. Mobile voting procedure shall not be conducted on the polling day for voters being in another country.

Article 67. Procedures to be conducted before opening of the ballot box

1. After the conclusion of polling, in compliance with procedures defined by paragraph 2 (“c”) of Article 61 of this Law, a PEC chairperson shall select no less than 3 counting officers by casting lots, while the observers shall select not more than 2 supervisors out of their members, based on mutual agreement (if observers fail to agree, the PEC chairperson shall identify 2 supervisors from them by casting lots).
2. The chairperson of the commission shall select, by casting lots, from the representatives present at the polling station, no more than two representatives, who, together with the counting officers selected from the commission members by casting lots, shall participate in the process of counting valid and/or invalid ballot papers. Moreover, those representatives of the election subjects do not take part in casting lots to select abovementioned representatives, appointed commission members of which are counting officers selected by casting lots.
3. Counting officers consecutively count the total number of voters participating in the polling by general, special and mobile ballot box lists of voters. The secretary of the PEC immediately incorporates the results into the public display protocol and the polling day logbook and then wraps and seals the general, special and mobile ballot box lists of voters one by one.
4. Commission secretary shall cut an edge of the unused ballot papers. Unused and spoiled ballot papers shall be bound in separate packages. Each package shall include the name and number of the polling station, and the type of the ballot paper.
5. The packages shall be sealed and signed by the counting officers and the chairperson of the PEC.
- 5<sup>1</sup>. After completion of above-mentioned procedures, the PEC secretary shall calculate the total amount of cases according paragraph 2<sup>2</sup> of the article 65 and attached documents to the logbook and will include respective data in the logbook. After that, the secretary shall wrap and seal the documents, indicate the PEC number and type of documentation on the package and sign the sealed package.
6. At the polling station set up for special cases, polling procedures shall be conducted in compliance with general procedures. After the conclusion of polling, the PEC, set up for exceptional cases, shall seal the ballot box section, the list of voters, and unused and spoiled ballot papers. The ballot box, list of voters, sealed unused and spoiled ballot papers shall be immediately submitted to the polling station (main polling station) pre-determined, based on the ordinance issued by the DEC.
7. The main election precinct shall open the ballot box of a polling station, set up for exceptional cases, according to the rule stipulated in paragraph 8 of this Article, and it shall mix the special envelopes and ballot papers from the above box with the special envelopes and ballot papers available at the main election precinct.

8. The ballot box of a polling station set up for exceptional cases shall be opened after mobile and main ballot boxes of the main election precinct are opened. The results of the main polling station and polling stations set up for exceptional cases shall be recorded in one summary protocol.

Article 68. Opening of the ballot box

1. The chairperson of the PEC shall check the integrity of the seal on the ballot box in the presence of PEC members and persons authorized to be present in the voting building.
2. If the seal is damaged, but the PEC considers that this fact has not violated the requirements of this Law, the procedures of summarizing results shall be resumed under the PEC ordinance. Otherwise, the ballot box shall be sealed and the PEC ordinance and the sealed ballot box shall be immediately transmitted to the upper DEC.
3. Counting officers shall move the ballot boxes to a desk standing separately and take their places on opposite sides in such a way to maintain two meters distance between PEC members and persons authorized to be present at the polling place. Two supervisors and two representatives selected from the observers shall stand next to the counting officers.
4. The PEC shall first open the mobile ballot boxes. Counting officers shall take special envelopes from the mobile ballot box and place them on the desk, check whether there is a control sheet in the mobile ballot box and compare it with the control sheet kept for comparison with the PEC. In case a difference was identified between the two control sheets, or there was an absence of a control sheet in the mobile ballot box, all special envelopes and ballot papers shall be bundled in one package and labeled “invalid” and transferred to the upper DEC after the conclusion of the procedures of polling and counting of votes at the polling station. After the conclusion of this procedure, the counting officers shall open the main ballot box.
5. Counting officers shall take special envelopes and voting ballots from the main ballot box and place them on a separate desk, check whether there is a control sheet in the main ballot box and compare it with the control sheet kept for comparison with the chairperson of the PEC. In case a difference was identified between the two control sheets, or there was an absence of a control sheet in the main ballot box, all special envelopes and ballot papers shall be bundled in a package, sealed, and a respective protocol shall be drawn up and immediately transferred to the upper DEC. If no such violations occur, the counting officers shall mix the special envelopes from the main and mobile ballot boxes and start counting the ballot papers.

Article 69. Counting of votes

1. The PEC shall count the ballot papers in compliance with the following procedure:

- a) the first counting officer shall take the ballot paper out of the special envelope, announce to whom the vote was cast and transfer the ballot papers of one type to the second counting officer, the second type of ballot papers to the third counting officer, etc., and special envelopes shall be placed separately. Counting officers shall sort the ballot papers separately by the votes given to each election subject;
  - b) unidentified ballot papers and ballot papers deemed invalid by the counting officers shall be placed separately. Ballot papers with suspicious authenticity shall also be placed separately.
2. One of the supervisors, selected from the observers, shall stand next to the second counting officer as specified under subparagraph "a" of paragraph 1 of this Article, and the second supervisor shall stand next to the third counting officer as specified under the same subparagraph. The supervisors are entitled to observe the entire procedure of counting of votes, make remarks on any error, request rectification of an error and, unless such a request is satisfied, appeal against the action of the PEC before the upper DEC, and in the court thereafter. Persons authorized to be present at the polling place shall have the right to request the counting officer to put aside any ballot paper with suspicious authenticity.
  3. A default ballot paper shall be deemed invalid only in the following cases:
    - a) the ballot paper is not endorsed with the signature of a registrar and a special stamp;
    - b) it is impossible to determine for which election subject a voter cast a vote;
    - c) the number of ballots in the special envelope exceeds the established number;
    - d) the special envelope is not in an approved form;
    - e) the ballot paper in the ballot box was without a special envelope;
    - f) the ballot paper was assigned to another polling station.
  4. Any type of adjustment, alteration, or amendment to the ballot paper after a voter has expressed his/her will, shall entail responsibility under the legislation of Georgia.
  5. Ballot papers with suspicious authenticity shall be inspected after all ballot papers are sorted in different categories. The issue of authenticity of each ballot paper shall be decided by the PEC based on voting. Ballot papers that are deemed valid shall be added to the pile of valid ballot papers, while ballots that are deemed invalid are added to the pile of invalid ballot papers.
  6. After the completion of the procedure defined by paragraph 5 of this Article, the ballot papers that have been found invalid shall be counted and labeled "invalid"; these ballot papers shall be bundled in a package and signed by the counting officers and the PEC chairperson, and the PEC secretary shall immediately include their quantity in the public display protocol and the logbook. Invalid ballots assigned to another precinct shall be packed in a separate bundle and their quantity shall be recorded only in the logbook.
  7. Each package of ballot papers shall be packed and sealed in the envelope of an appropriate size. The number of the polling station, and the type and number of ballot papers shall be specified on each package.
  8. After the conclusion of the procedure specified in paragraph 7 of this Article, the number of votes cast for each election subject shall be counted and the ballot papers shall be packed according to the procedure provided under paragraph 9 of this Article. The bundle of ballot papers cast for the each election subject shall be separately packed and sealed. The number of votes obtained by each election subject shall be immediately recorded by the PEC secretary in the public display protocol and the logbook.

9. Every 10 ballot papers shall be bound with a metal clip and each package, both complete and incomplete, shall have inscribed the number of ballot papers in a package. These packages shall be bound into a single bundle. These bundles of ballot papers shall have inscribed the title and number of the election precinct, information about the election subject(s) (title, first and last name), the number of votes received by the election subject(s), and the number of ballot papers in the bundle.

Article 70. Summary protocol of polling results

1. The results of polling and elections shall be recorded in the summary protocols of polling and election results of the CEC, DEC and PEC.
2. The summary protocol is an individual administrative-legal act verifying polling and elections results. The summary protocol and its copy, certified under the procedure of this Law, have equal legal force.
3. It is prohibited to modify the data in the summary protocol. The validity of such a summary protocol shall be reviewed by the upper election commission. Modification of the summary protocol data shall result into responsibility of the chairperson and secretary of the relevant election commission under the rule established by this Law.
4. If a mistake is made during filling out the summary protocol, in order to correct it, an inscription "corrected" shall be put immediately along the relevant data in the summary protocol. The election commission shall draw up the amendment protocol, which shall include the correction of the data of the summary protocol and the date and time of drawing up the protocol. All members of the election commission attending the session shall sign the amendment protocol. A commission stamp shall be put on the amended protocol, and the protocol shall be registered in the election commission registration book and the data of which was been corrected shall be attached to the summary protocol.
5. Each type of summary protocol (summary protocol of polling results of the PEC and summary protocol of polling and election results of the DEC) shall be numbered with individual numbers which shall not be repeated.
6. Summary protocols shall be registered accurately. They shall be printed by the CEC under the constant supervision of the authorized persons by the CEC and observers. The person executing the order of printing the protocols shall be personally responsible for making sure that the number of printed protocols transferred to the CEC exactly complies with that of the ordered protocols in order to prevent printing and distributing excess number of protocols.
7. The chairperson of the election commission is responsible for keeping the protocols in the election commission and their distribution as needed.

8. The DEC shall forward every type of summary protocol of polling results at the polling station to the PEC.
9. Summary protocols shall be printed on paper with protective signs that can be ordered and purchased only by the CEC.
10. Summary protocols shall be printed in Georgian language, in Abkhazia - Abkhazian, and for election districts for which the ballot papers are printed in a different language, comprehensible to the local population, summary protocols shall be printed in the corresponding language as well.

Article 71. Drawing up of the summary protocol of polling results by the PEC

  - m) the date and time that the protocol was drawn up;
  - n) the details of the protocol, with which a member of the PEC disagrees (commission member shall make this note in the column "dissenting opinion" and signs it).

4. All members of the PEC shall be obliged to sign the summary protocol of polling results, thus confirming their presence at the election precinct. The protocol is endorsed by the PEC stamp.
5. If a PEC member does not agree with the data included in the PEC summary protocol of polling results, he/she shall be entitled to attach to the protocol a dissenting opinion in writing.
6. In the case that a PEC member has a dissenting opinion, it is still the PEC member's duty to sign the summary protocol of polling results.
7. The summary protocol of polling results (enclosed with the dissenting opinions of PEC members) together with the sealed envelope of ballot papers and list of voters shall be immediately handed over to the upper DEC, which shall present the above protocol, accompanied by the DEC summary protocol, to the CEC.
8. The PEC is responsible for posting a copy of the summary protocol of polling results for public viewing. The PEC shall, if requested, immediately give a copy of the protocol (enclosed with the dissenting opinions of the commission members) to the representatives of party/election bloc/initiative group or the member of the PEC appointed by the party and the observers of an observer organization. The copy of the protocol shall be certified by the PEC stamp and signatures of the PEC chairperson and its secretary (these protocols shall have the same legal power as the PEC summary protocol of polling results). The representative/observer shall endorse the receipt of the protocol by a signature in the PEC logbook
9. From the day following the polling day, the copies of summary protocols of polling results shall be issued by the DEC. These copies shall be certified with the signatures of the DEC chairperson and its secretary and the DEC stamp (these protocols shall have the same legal power as the PEC summary protocol of polling results). The representative/observer shall endorse the receipt of the protocol by a signature in the DEC registration book..
10. Failure to issue the summary protocol of polling results, if requested under the procedures of this Law, shall cause the responsibility of the authorized persons of the commission according to the rule prescribed by this Law.
11. Together, with the summary protocol of polling results, the list of voters and the signatures of the voters participating in the polling shall be forwarded to the DEC. The DEC, in turn, shall forward those lists to the CEC, who shall sort and keep them archived.
12. After completion of all polling procedures, the registration book of the PEC shall be closed, signed by the PEC chairperson and its secretary and endorsed by the stamp of the PEC.
13. The PEC stamp shall be sealed in a separate envelope. The envelope is signed by the PEC chairperson, its secretary and other PEC members.
14. It is the duty of the PEC to immediately convey the copy of the summary protocol of polling results, upon its completion, to the CEC through all technical means available (including fax, where possible).

Article 72. Procedure for drawing up and submitting an application/complaint on the polling day

1. An application/complaint shall be handed to the PEC chairperson, his/her deputy, or the secretary of the commission. The commission secretary shall register the application/complaint in the logbook and issue a (signed) notice to the applicant/complainant indicating the date, time and registration number of the application/complaint submitted to the commission.
2. An application/complaint shall include:

They shall have the right to choose the number assigned to them during previous parliamentary elections, or select numbers „two” or „three” respectively, except for the case when the number assigned to them during previous parliamentary elections is assigned to a candidate nominated by a political union that received better results than them.
3. If an election bloc is assigned a certain number in the previous parliamentary elections, the candidate of the party, which is first in the election bloc list, shall be entitled to use this number.
4. Except for the case defined in the paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article, the assigned number of a candidate for presidency shall be defined by casting lots.
5. For casting lots, the chairperson of the CEC writes the numbers corresponding to the number of candidates for presidency on the same shape and type of papers, with the same type of pen. Each paper shall be certified by the stamp of the commission. As a next step, the numbers selected, in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article, shall be kept separately. All other papers shall be folded in such a way as to make it impossible to read the numbers on them. The CEC chairperson shall put these papers in a transparent box, and every representative of the candidates for the presidency shall take a single paper out of the box. The number identified by casting of lots shall be assigned to the candidate for presidency.
6. In the case of the cancellation of the electoral registration of a candidate for presidency, the remaining candidates shall keep their assigned numbers.

7. The CEC shall publish the lists of registered candidates for presidency on its official website, no later than 24 days prior to polling.

Article 105. Second round of elections

1. If no candidate gets the necessary amount of votes in the first round of elections, the second round of elections shall be called.
2. The second round of elections shall be called by the ordinance of the CEC. The second round shall be held right after two weeks of the official announcement of the first round of election results.
3. The two candidates with the best results in the first round of elections shall be entitled to run in the run-off. If, during the first round, two candidates receive an equal amount of votes, and those amounts are the second highest, the candidate that runs in the second round shall be decided by casting lots.
4. The candidate who receives the most votes in the run-off shall be deemed elected.
5. If the participant candidates receive equal number of votes in the second round, the candidate having received more votes in the first round of elections shall be considered elected.

Article 106. Re-run elections

1. Re-run elections shall be held if, in the first or second round of elections, all participating candidates withdrew their candidacies.
2. Re-run elections shall be held within 2 months of the summarization of the results of the general elections.
3. Re-run elections shall be called by the Parliament of Georgia.
4. The information on the calling of the re-run elections shall be published through the press and other media.
5. Re-run elections shall be held according to the procedures established for general elections by this Law and within the timeframe determined by the CEC, but no later than 2 months after the summarization of the results of the general elections.

Article 107. Extraordinary elections of the President of Georgia

1. If the authority of the President of Georgia is terminated prior to its expiration, extraordinary elections shall be held no later than on the 45th day following the early termination of the authority of the President of Georgia.
2. If the early termination of an authority of the President of Georgia coincides with Parliamentary holidays, or a non-session week, the Parliament of Georgia shall be convened no later than 48 hours after the termination of the authority of the President of Georgia.
3. The Parliament of Georgia shall call the extraordinary elections of the President of Georgia no later than 72 hours after the termination of the authority of the President of Georgia.
4. The holding of extraordinary elections for the President of Georgia shall be ensured by the Parliament of Georgia, through the CEC.

5. To nominate a candidate for presidency of Georgia, a party or an initiative group of voters shall submit an application to the CEC no later than on the 40th day before the extraordinary elections.
6. For registering a candidate for the Presidency of Georgia, a representative of a party, initiative group of voters shall submit to the CEC a list of supporters of not less than 25,000 voters (0,75% of total number of voters), no later than on the 30th day before the extraordinary elections.
7. Candidates for the Presidency of Georgia shall be registered by the CEC no later than on the 25th day before the extraordinary elections.
8. In the occasion of the pre-term elections of the President of Georgia, elections shall be held within 45 days of the early termination of the authority of the President of Georgia, in compliance with the general elections procedure defined by this Law.

CHAPTER XIII REGISTRATION OF ELECTION SUBJECTS PARTICIPATING IN THE ELECTIONS OF THE PARLIAMENT OF GEORGIA

Article 113. Registration of parties/cancellation of registration

1. To obtain the right to participate in the elections of the Parliament of Georgia, a party shall apply with the relevant application, signed by its leader(s), to the chairperson of the CEC:
  - a) after the parliamentary elections are called, but no later than on the 57th day before the Election Day, if, by the day of calling of elections, the party has a representative in the Parliament of Georgia. A party representative shall be a Member of the Parliament selected by the nomination of the relevant party of an election bloc (in which this party was included);
  - b) from January 1 until August 1 of the parliamentary election year, if it does not meet the requirement set forth by subparagraph “a” of the present paragraph.
2. The application shall be enclosed with the party's registration certificate and statute, or the copies of those documents certified by the notary, and a document proving that the party has a representative in the parliament (if any);
3. The application shall include the following information about the party:
  - a) name of the party and, if applicable, its short version and/or abbreviated name under which the party participates in elections;
  - b) last name, first name, address (according to the place of registration), telephone number and the sample of signature of the party leader(s);
  - c) last name, first name, address (according to the place of registration), telephone number and limits of authority of the party representative;
  - d) if there are several leaders - the limits of authority of each leader in relation to the electoral process.
4. The title, or the short and/or abbreviated title, of the party, mentioned in subparagraph „a” of Paragraph 3 of this Article, shall not coincide with:
  - a) the official title, or the short and/or abbreviated title, of another party registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (if the titles coincide, the party shall not be permitted to use this name);

- b) the title, or the short and/or abbreviated title, of an election bloc participating in the elections, if the application of this bloc was filed at the CEC earlier (if the names coincide the party will not be permitted to use this name);
  - c) name, or the short and/or abbreviated name, used by another party/election bloc in the last parliamentary elections, unless the consent of that party/election bloc is available.
5. In the case specified by subparagraph “b” of paragraph 1 of this Article, the appropriate CEC department shall provide the party representative with a sample of the list of supporters. The appropriate CEC department shall check the application and enclosed documents and submit its conclusions to the CEC chairperson no later than the day following the filing of the application.
  6. In cases specified in subparagraph „a” of paragraph 1 of this Article, no later than the day following the submission of the conclusions, mentioned in Paragraph 5 of this Article, the CEC chairperson shall:
    - a) register the party and its representative for elections, if the filed application and enclosed documents meet the requirements of this Law:
    - b) submit a written notification to the party representative on the non-compliance of the application and the enclosed documents with the provisions of this Law (indicating the areas of noncompliance), if such non-compliance exists, the party shall have 3 days to adjust the application and documents.
  7. The corrected application and documents, as specified in subparagraph “b” of Paragraph 6 of this Article, shall be checked and the decision on the electoral registration shall be made within 2 days of their submission. If the corrected application and documents meet the requirements of this Law, the CEC chairperson shall register the party and its representative for elections; otherwise, within the same timeframe, the CEC chairperson shall issue an ordinance on the decline of the application for electoral registration (the ordinance shall state the exact reasons for the decline of the application for registration and the provisions of this Law with which the application did not comply). The party representative shall be immediately notified about the issuance of this ordinance and, upon request, shall be submitted to the representative of the party.
  8. In the case specified in subparagraph “b” of paragraph 1 of this Article, no later than the 3rd day after providing the conclusions mentioned in Paragraph 5 of this Article, the CEC chairperson shall notify, in written form, the party representative regarding the noncompliance of the application and enclosed documents with the provisions of this Law (indicating the areas of noncompliance), if such noncompliance exists. The corrected application and documents shall be returned to the CEC within 3 days.
  9. A party, which does not meet the requirement set forth by subparagraph “a” of the present paragraph, shall, within 60 days of the acceptance of the sample form of the list of supporters, but no later than August 15, submit to the CEC a list of at least 1000 voters in favor of the party’s participation in the Parliamentary elections of Georgia, if it is a qualified election subject. If it is not a qualified election subject - at least 25,000 voters (this number shall not exceed 1% of total number of voters). The appropriate CEC department shall verify the list of supporters in accordance with the procedures established by Article 38 of this Law. During the election period, the appropriate CEC department, within 2 days after the submission, shall verify the list of supporters and shall present its conclusion to the CEC Chairperson.

10. If the application, enclosed documents (or the corrected application and documents) and the list of supporters specified in this Article, are submitted within the timeframe determined by this Law, and meet the requirements of this law, the CEC chairperson, based on the conclusion provided by the appropriate CEC department, shall register the party and its representative for elections within 10 days of receiving the conclusion, but no later than the 59th day before the election day. Otherwise, the CEC chairperson shall issue an ordinance within the same timeframe on the decline of the application for electoral registration (the ordinance shall specify the exact reasons for the decline of the application for registration and the provisions of this Law which caused the decline of the application). The party representative shall be immediately notified about the issuance of this ordinance and, upon request, shall be submitted to the representative of the party.
11. No later than 30 days before the Election Day, the CEC shall publish on its official website the list of registered parties, according to the sequence in which their applications were filed, as well as the list of those parties' registration applications which were declined and registrations which were cancelled, and the reasons for the above.
12. The electoral registration of a party shall be cancelled, by ordinance of the CEC chairperson, under the following circumstances:
  - a) upon its own request;
  - b) if the party's operations are prohibited by the Constitutional Court of Georgia;
  - c) if the electoral registration of the election bloc, to which this party is a member, is cancelled in accordance with subparagraphs „c” or „d” of paragraph 14 of the Article 114 of this Law;
  - d) before completion of parliamentary elections results it leaves or is dismissed from an election bloc, after the expiration of the deadline for submission of party lists by a bloc;
  - e) if it fails to submit the party list or the submitted party list is not registered;
  - f) if, no later than the 2nd day before Election Day, the number of candidates in the party list is less than the minimum number prescribed by this Law;

Organic Law of Georgia March 7, 2014 №2093-IIS – website, 14.03.2014y.

Article 114. Registration of election blocs /cancellation of registration

1. The parties registered by the CEC chairperson have the right to establish an election bloc and to leave an election bloc. To register an election bloc, an application signed by the authorized leaders of all parties constituting the bloc, and the election bloc statute, shall be submitted to the CEC no later than the 43rd day before the regular Election Day.
2. The application shall include the following information about the election bloc:
  - a) the name, and, if applicable, its short version and/or abbreviated name under which the bloc participates in elections, and the list of parties incorporated in the bloc;
  - b) the first name, last name, and address (according to the place of registration) of the leader (s);

- c) the first name, last name, address (according to the place of registration), telephone number and limits of authority of the representative;
  - d) if there are several leaders, the limits of authority of each leader in relations to the electoral process.
3. The name, short and/or abbreviated name, of the election bloc, mentioned in subparagraph „a” of paragraph 2 of this Article, shall not coincide with:
    - a) the official title, or short and/or abbreviated name of another party registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (except for the party incorporated into this bloc) (if the names coincide the other party shall not be permitted to use this name);
    - b) the name, or short name and/or abbreviation of another election bloc participating in the elections, if the application of this bloc was filed at the CEC earlier (if the names coincide the bloc is not permitted to use this name);
    - c) the name, or short and/or abbreviated name used by another election bloc in the last parliamentary elections, unless the consent of that election bloc is available.
  4. The election bloc statute, signed by the leaders of all parties constituting the election bloc, shall include:
    - a) the name and, if applicable, the short name and/or abbreviation of the election bloc under which the bloc participates in the elections;
    - b) the list of the parties united in the election bloc;
    - c) the administrative body (if applicable) of the election bloc, leaders and their authority;
    - d) the procedure for decision-making by the election bloc, including acceptance of new members in the bloc, withdrawal or exclusion of a party from the bloc, nomination of candidates for the representative body by the bloc and the rules of cancellation of this nomination;
    - e) the person(s) entitled to sign the election bloc documents;
    - f) the rules for using the stamp of one of the election bloc member parties during the electoral events;
    - g) the rules for the appointment of the manager and accountant of the pre-election campaign fund;
    - h) the rules for making amendments to the election bloc statute.
  5. A member of one election bloc shall not be a member of another election bloc, or independently participate, in the same election cycle.
  6. Upon the acceptance of the application and the statute, stipulated in paragraph 1 of this Article, the CEC chairperson shall provide the bloc representative with the document certifying their submission.
  7. The appropriate CEC department shall check the application and statute, mentioned in Paragraph 1 of this Article, and will provide its conclusion to the CEC chairperson no later than the day after the application is filed with the Commission. The CEC chairperson shall, no later than the day after receiving the conclusion, register the election bloc and its representative for elections, if the submitted documents meet the requirements prescribed by paragraphs 1-5 of this Article. If the submitted documents do not meet the abovementioned requirements, the CEC chairperson shall notify the election bloc representative, in writing, on the noncompliance of the documents with the provisions of this Law (including the areas of noncompliance). The corrected documents shall be resubmitted to the CEC no later than the 2nd day after the notice is given. The CEC chairperson shall make the final decision on the registration within 2 days of accepting the corrected documents. If the corrected documents meet the requirements of this Law, the CEC chairperson shall register the election bloc and its representative; otherwise the CEC chairperson will issue an ordinance on the decline of the application for registration (the ordinance shall state the exact reasons for the decline of the application for registration and the provisions of this Law due to which the application has been declined). A representative of the election bloc shall be immediately notified about the ordinance and, upon request the ordinance shall be transmitted to the representative of an election bloc. The registration procedures prescribed in this Paragraph shall be completed on the 37th day before the Election Day.

8. A party, which is registered for the elections, has the right to join a registered election bloc before the expiration of the term of registration of election blocs, under proper application and consent of the election bloc submitted to the CEC chairperson.
9. Upon registration of the election bloc, the powers of the representatives of the party-members of the bloc to all election commissions shall be terminated under the ordinance of the CEC chairperson, and the bloc shall be entitled to appoint two representatives to each election commission.
10. In the case of the withdrawal or exclusion of a party/ parties from the election bloc before the expiration of the deadline for nomination of party lists/candidates, each party has the right to continue running in the elections. If, for this reason, only one party remains in the bloc, the electoral registration of the bloc shall be cancelled under the ordinance of the CEC and the parties, previously members to the bloc, shall be entitled to continue to participate in the elections.
11. In the case of the withdrawal or exclusion of a party from the election bloc after the expiration of the deadline for nomination of party list/candidates, the electoral registration of this party shall be cancelled under the ordinance of the CEC chairperson. If, for this reason, only one party remains in the bloc, the electoral registration of the bloc shall be cancelled under the CEC ordinance and the remaining party shall be the legal successor of the bloc.
12. . No later than 30 days before the Election Day, the CEC shall publish on its official website the list of registered election blocs, according to the sequence in which their applications were filed, as well as the list of the registration requests of the blocs whose registration was declined or cancelled, and the reasons for such.
13. A party/election bloc registered, according to this Law, shall be entitled, on the basis of its application, to take part in elections at all levels which are held before the following parliamentary elections. A party united in an election bloc has the right to participate either independently or as part of another election bloc in the elections at all levels, which are held before the following parliamentary elections.

14. The electoral registration of an election bloc shall be cancelled by ordinance of the CEC chairperson:
  - a) based on its own request;
  - b) if the election bloc breaks up, or, due to withdrawal, exclusion or cancellation of the electoral registration of the member party (parties) of the bloc, only one party is left in the bloc;
  - c) if it has failed to submit the party list, or the submitted party list is not registered;
  - d) if, no later than the 2nd day before the Election Day, the number of candidates in the party list of the election bloc is less than the minimum number defined by this Law.

Article 117. Inspection of party lists and documents of nominated candidates for MPs submitted to majoritarian election districts and electoral registration

1. A party list shall be registered by the ordinance of the CEC chairperson, and a majoritarian candidate nominated for an election district shall be registered under the relative DEC chairperson ordinance if all documents specified under this Law comply with the requirements prescribed by this Law. Electoral registration shall not be considered if the timeframes established by this Law for submission of documents is violated;
2. The party list submitted by the party/election bloc shall be verified by the appropriate department of the CEC and within 10 days after the submission of the list, but no later than the 26th day before the Election Day submits its conclusion to the CEC chairperson, who, within 3 days, but no later than the 25th day before the Election Day shall:
  - a) register the party list and the candidates nominated by a party/ election bloc only if the submitted party list and the documents attached comply with the requirements prescribed by this law;
  - b) give a written notice to the representative of the party/election bloc on any discrepancy, if applicable, between the requirements established by this Law and the data specified in the party list and the documents attached thereto (by indicating the areas of discrepancy), and the representative shall be given 3 days to correct the discrepancy identified in the party list and other documents;
3. The corrected data specified in subparagraph (b) of paragraph 2 of this Article shall be inspected and the issue of electoral registration shall be resolved within 5 days after their submission, but no later than the 20th day before Election Day. If the corrected data complies with the requirements of this Law, the CEC chairperson shall register the party list or the part of such a list which complies with the requirements prescribed by this law (if the number of candidates in this part is not less than the established minimum) and, within the same timeframe, shall issue an ordinance on the decline of registration of the applications submitted by other candidates (the ordinance shall specify reasons for the decline of registration and the provisions of this Law under which the application was declined). If the number of other candidates in the party list, which complies with the requirements of this Law, remains less than the established minimum requirement, neither the party list nor the candidates nominated by the party/election bloc shall be registered and chairperson of the CEC shall, within the timeframe specified above, issue an ordinance on the decline of registration (the ordinance shall specify reasons for the decline of registration and the provisions of this Law under which the application was declined). The representative of the party shall be immediately notified regarding the ordinance mentioned in this paragraph and the ordinance shall be transmitted to the party immediately upon request.
4. The chairperson of the relevant DEC shall register/decline registration request of a majoritarian candidate nominated to an election district in accordance with the procedures and terms established by Paragraph 2 and 3 of this Article. A party/election bloc is obliged to submit registration documents of a majoritarian candidate to the CEC within the terms established by this Law.

5. A candidate for member of the Parliamentary of Georgia shall not be registered, and the registration of any registered candidate shall be cancelled by ordinance issued by the CEC chairperson (in cases specified by subparagraphs (a) to (e) of this Paragraph), or by court decision (in case specified by subparagraph (f) of this Paragraph), if the applications and documents submitted to the relevant election commission fail to comply with all the requirements provided by this law, or other provisions of this Law are violated, specifically if:
  - a) the data specified in the applications and documents are incomplete or incorrect;
  - b) the candidate included in the party list is a member of any other party participating in the elections;
  - c) the candidate is included in more than one party lists and there is, or there was a consent of such candidate for the inclusion thereof in more than one list simultaneously;
  - d) the candidate included in the party list, consents to be nominated for a majoritarian election district by another party/election bloc;
  - e) other elections are held during the parliamentary elections of Georgia, and there is, or was, a consent of a candidate for member of the parliament for participation in this elections as a candidate;
  - f) the requirements defined by paragraph 1 of Article 47 and/or Article 48 are violated.
  - g) a candidate for majoritarian deputy failed to have the narcotic drug test taken or if the drug test confirmed that the above candidate is a narcotic drug user.
6. An ordinance issued by the chairperson of the CEC/DEC on the decline of registering the applications of party lists and candidates for the MP nominated by political party/election bloc/initiative group of voters may be appealed according to the provisions prescribed by Article 77 and 78 of this Law.

Article 118. Cancellation of electoral registration of registered majoritarian candidates

Electoral registration of a registered majoritarian candidate shall be cancelled by an ordinance of chairperson of the CEC:

- a) based on his/her own application;
- b) in case of prohibition of the party nominating the candidate by the Constitutional Court of Georgia;
- c) if registration of the nominating party/election bloc/initiative group of voters is canceled under paragraph 14 of Article 114 of this Law;
- d) if the person has been deceased;
- e) in other cases prescribed by this Law.

Article 119. Determination of the assigned number of an election subject

1. The assigned number of an electoral subject shall be determined according to the procedure specified by this Article 30 days earlier before the elections. The procedures for defining the sequential number are conducted in the office of the CEC with the attendance of the persons who has this right;

2. The political union having received most of the votes at latest proportional elections of the Parliament has the right to choose an assigned number at first. The representative of the political union submits the application to the CEC under which the political union keeps the number assigned to it at previous parliamentary elections, or takes number one. The same rule applies to those political unions having obtained second and third places according to the results of the latest parliamentary elections, which entitles them to select the number sequentially. They also have the right to maintain the numbers assigned to them at the latest parliamentary elections, or to choose number two or three correspondingly, except for the cases when the assigned number they had at the latest parliamentary elections have been already taken by the political union having received better results;
3. If an election bloc was assigned a number at the previous elections, the party first in the list of parties constituting this election bloc is entitled to use the assigned number.
4. If political parties having participated in the latest parliamentary elections established an election bloc for the elections, they shall specify in the statute of the bloc the assigned number of the party they will use;
5. The assigned number of all election subjects, except for the political unions defined by paragraph 2 of this Article, shall be determined by casting lots;
6. For casting lots, chairperson of the election commission shall put down on a paper of the same shape and type and by using the same pen the numbers corresponding to the quantity of parties, election blocs. Each sheet must be certified by the commission stamp. Then the numbers selected in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article shall be separated from the other sheets; the rest of the sheets are folded in a way that makes it impossible to read the numbers written on them. The CEC chairperson places the filled out sheets into a transparent box, from which representatives of parties and election blocs take the sheets one by one. The number drawn becomes the assigned number of the electoral subject;
7. Majoritarian candidates nominated by party/election bloc have the same assigned number as assigned to the nominating political party/election bloc;
8. The relevant DEC shall assign the number by casting lots to the candidate nominated by an initiative group of voters. For casting lots, chairperson of the election commission shall put down on a paper of the same shape and type and by using the same pen the numbers corresponding to the quantity of the majoritarian candidates nominated by the initiative group of voters for the election district, which starts with the first highest number that follows to the number assigned to parties/election blocs participating in elections. Each sheet must be certified by the commission stamp. Every sheet shall be folded in a way that makes it impossible to read the numbers written on them. The commission chairperson places the filled out sheets into a transparent box, from which representatives of the initiative group of voters take the sheets one by one. The number drawn becomes the assigned number of the electoral subject;

9. In case of cancelation of the election registration of an election subject, the remaining election subjects retain their assigned numbers in the ballot papers.
10. The CEC, no later than 25 days prior to the Election Day, shall publish on its official website the registered party lists, and also information on candidates registered for majoritarian election districts to appear in ballot papers.

Article 120. Revocation of decision on nomination of a candidate for membership of the Parliament of Georgia

1. A candidate for member of the Parliament of Georgia, as well as the nominating party or election bloc, shall have a right, at any time, but no later than 10 days before the polling day, to revoke the decision on participation in elections or nomination of a candidate, for which they shall file an application to a relevant election commission.
2. A party, election bloc participating independently in elections shall be entitled to revoke their decision on the nomination of a candidate for an MP/ Sakrebulo after recognizing the authorities of elected members of the Parliament/Sakrebulo. Party/election bloc may not revoke its decision on nomination of candidates for MP/Sakrebulo, whose names remained in the party lists upon termination of the authority of an MP/ Sakrebulo member elected from this list until the recognition of the authority of his/ her replacement. Candidacy nominated by the party, election bloc shall be withdrawn under the ordinance of the CEC based on the application signed by the leader of the party (the person determined by the statute of the election bloc) within 3 days of after submission of the application. If the application is not approved within this term, the candidate for an MP/ Sakrebulo shall be deemed as withdrawn from the party list starting from the following day after the expiration of the above term.
3. A candidate for member of the Parliament of Georgia may withdraw his/her candidacy from the party list after the recognition of the authorities of the elected members of the Parliament, for which she/he shall file a relevant application to the CEC. His/her candidacy shall be withdrawn under the CEC chairperson ordinance within 3 days after filing the application. If the application is not approved within this term, candidate for an MP shall be deemed as withdrawn from the party list on the following day after the expiration of the above term.
4. The CEC shall immediately publish the information on withdrawal of an electoral subject or a separate candidate from the elections on its official website.

CHAPTER XIV SUMMARIZING THE RESULTS OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS OF GEORGIA

Article 123. Counting of votes at the PEC

1. The PEC shall summarize the polling results and include them in the summary protocols of final results of the election held under majoritarian and proportional systems.
2. The summary protocol of election results held under proportional election system shall be drawn up according to the party lists, while the summary protocol of election results held under majoritarian election system shall be drawn up according to the candidates nominated for the majoritarian election district.

Article 124. Summarizing polling results at the DEC

1. The DEC, based on the protocols of the PECs and district/city courts decisions, shall sum up polling results at its session and include them in the summary protocols of election results held in accordance with the majoritarian and proportional systems.
2. Based on the application/complaint, the DEC shall, under its ordinance, make a decision on opening the packages received from the PEC and re-counting the ballot papers.

Article 125. Summarizing election results at the CEC

1. The CEC, based on the protocols received from the DEC, PECs and final court decisions, shall summarize at its session the elections results of the Parliament of Georgia and shall draw up the protocol no later than on the 19th day after the Election Day.
2. One copy of the protocol shall be kept at the CEC; the second copy shall be transferred to the Parliament of Georgia, while copies attested by the seal of the CEC shall be forwarded to representatives of the election subjects.
3. A candidate for member of Parliament, who receives more votes than others, but not less than 30% of total number voters participating in elections in the respective majoritarian election district, shall be considered to be elected in the majoritarian election district.

The number of votes derived from invalid ballot papers shall be deducted from the number of votes cast by voters participating in the elections.

4. Mandates of the Members of the Parliament of Georgia shall be granted only to the party list that receives no less than 5% of total votes. The number of votes derived from invalid ballot papers shall be deducted from the number of votes cast by voters participating in the elections.
5. For determining the number of mandates received by a party list, the number of votes received by this list must be multiplied by 77 and divided by the total number of the votes received by the election subjects. The whole number of the result represents the number of mandates received by the party list.
6. If the total number of mandates received by party/election bloc turns out to be less than 77, each mandate from the unassigned mandates, with the purpose of supplementing mandates up to 6, shall be sequentially granted to each of those election subjects having overcome the threshold and received less than 6 mandates.
7. If, after the assignment of mandates under the procedure prescribed by paragraph 6 of this Article, any election subject still has less than 6 mandates, with the purpose of supplementing such election subjects up to 6 mandates, one mandate shall be successively deducted from the election subjects having received more than 6 mandates and as a result of this deduction the number mandates remaining with this election subject is no less than 7 mandates.
8. If there are still unassigned mandates left after the procedures prescribed by paragraph 6 of this Article, they shall be successively granted before the expiration of the term of the mandate to the election subjects having received no less than 6 mandates without a supplement.
9. If the number of votes received by 2 or more party lists turns out to be equal, the mandate shall be granted to the party list which was first to register at the CEC.
10. If a candidate for member of the Parliament of Georgia is elected both under majoritarian election system and under the party list, he/she shall be considered to be elected under the majoritarian system. The place of such a candidate in the party list shall be taken by another candidate in accordance with the procedures defined by paragraph 2 of Article 130 of this Law.
11. The candidates for member of the Parliament of Georgia whose assigned numbers in this list are less than or equal to the number of mandates received by the list, shall be deemed elected under party lists. The number of MPs elected according to this list, remains unchanged.
12. If, in any election district, as a consequence of gross violation of this Law, polling results are announced invalid in more than half of the polling stations that affects the election results, or in some precincts in which the total number of voters is more than half of the total number of voters in the election district and affects the election results, the majoritarian election results in the election district shall be declared invalid and the CEC shall call re-run election in this election district.

13. If during the elections under the proportional system as a consequence of gross violations of this Law, the results of the elections have been declared invalid in more than half of the election districts or in some of the districts in which the total number of voters is more than half of the total number of constituency of Georgia, the results of the elections shall be declared invalid and the CEC shall call the re-run elections.
14. If an application/complaint is filed requesting the verification or invalidation of polling results, the CEC shall make a decision by issuing an ordinance on opening of the sealed packages and re-counting of the ballot papers received from the relevant PEC, or the CEC delegates the aforementioned activities to the relevant DEC/special group. If necessary, the CEC shall be entitled to summarize the election results based on the protocols drawn up by the PECs.
15. In election precinct in which the polling results has been declared invalid, the CEC shall declare a repeat vote in this precinct, in cases when the difference between the votes of the candidates with best results is less than the total number of voters in this election precinct. In this case, if the results of the repeat voting are also declared invalid, the results of the elections shall be summarized by discarding the results of this precinct.
16. The repeat voting may be appointed both after the first round and the second round of elections. If necessary, the CEC is authorized to task the same or different composition of the PEC to hold the repeat voting. The repeat voting shall be held within 2 weeks after the first round (second round) of elections.
17. The repeat voting during the elections held under the proportional system shall be appointed in those cases when the total number of voters in these precincts, in which the results have been declared invalid, constitute more than 10% of the constituency of Georgia. In such cases, the repeat voting shall be held no later than 2 weeks after the general election day.
18. The summary protocol of the final election results shall include the titles and numbers of those election districts and precincts, in which elections were declared invalid, as well as the total number of voters in them, reasons for declaring the elections invalid, total number of voters in each election district, the turnout of voters, the number of Members of Parliament elected and their list arranged in alphabetical order.
19. Within 2 days of summing up the final results of elections, the CEC shall publish the summary protocol of election results on its official website.

Organic Law of Georgia March 7, 2014 №2093-IIS – website, 14.03.2014y.

Article 126. Second round of parliamentary elections of Georgia

1. If a Member of Parliament failed to be elected in the first round of majoritarian elections, the CEC shall call the second round of elections along with summarizing of the first round results. The second round of elections shall be held no later than the 14th day after the first round. 2 candidates having received the best results in the first round shall participate in the second round of the elections. If more than two candidates obtained similar best results or several majoritarian candidates following the candidate with the best results received equal number of votes, all the above candidates shall run in the second round of elections.

2. A candidate having won more votes in the second round of elections shall be deemed elected. If the candidates receive an equal number of votes, the candidate having received votes in the first round elections shall be deemed elected. If the votes received in the first round are equal, re-run elections shall be called.

Article 127. Re-run elections of the Parliament of Georgia

1. If elections are announced to be failed, also if election results in the majoritarian election district are declared invalid, re-run elections shall be held.
2. Re-run elections shall be held within two months after the declaration of elections as failed or after the declaration of the election results invalid. By its ordinance, the CEC shall announce the Election Day and timeframes for election arrangements no later than 7 days after the declaration of the election as failed or recognition of the election results invalid.
3. Under its ordinance, the CEC shall announce the date of re-run elections to be held in a majoritarian election district along with the timeframes for election arrangements no later than 2 months before the Election Day.
4. If elections held under proportional election system are announced as held, but none of the parties and election blocs received 5% of the votes, by the ordinance of the CEC re-run elections shall be held within 2 weeks after summarizing the election results.
5. Right to run in the re-run elections shall be enjoyed by only those parties and election blocs having received 2% of the votes in general elections. The party lists of the parties and election blocs participating in re-run elections remain unchanged. Changes in the lists shall be made only according to the general rule defined by this Law.

Article 128. Extraordinary elections of the Parliament of Georgia

In case of early dismissal of the Parliament of Georgia, extraordinary elections of the Parliament of Georgia shall be held on the 60th day after the issuance of the edict on early dismissal of the Parliament and the date of the extraordinary elections shall be appointed by the President upon the enforcement of the edict on early dismissal of the Parliament.

Article 129. By-elections of the Parliament of Georgia

1. In case of withdrawal of the Member of the Parliament elected from Majoritarian Election District, by-elections of Parliament shall be held in April or in October, in accordance with the procedures prescribed by this Law. If the authority of the Member of Parliament has been terminated from February 15 until July 15, by-elections of Parliament shall be held in October of the same year. If the authority of the Member of Parliament has been terminated from July 15 until February 15, by-elections of Parliament shall be held in the coming April. By-elections shall not be held in the year of the regular Parliamentary elections.
2. The date of the by-elections and the terms of pre-election events shall be set by the ordinance of the CEC no later than 2 months prior to the Election Day.

3. With the aim to participate in the Parliamentary elections of Georgia, a party/election bloc which was registered with the CEC during the last Parliamentary elections shall file an application with CEC signed by the head official(s), in order to obtain the right to participate in by-elections, after the by-elections are called, but no later than on the 57th day prior to the Election Day.

Organic Law of Georgia December 21, 2012 №154-IS – website, 08.01.2013y.

Article 130. The procedure for replacement of a withdrawn member of the Parliament of Georgia

1. If a withdrawn member of the Parliament of Georgia was elected under the party list of the independently participating party of the elections, his/her seat shall be occupied by the following candidate for an MP in the party list within 1 month, if the candidate gave his/her consent to become within 15 days after the vacancy became available. Otherwise, the vacancy shall be taken by the next candidate in the list, etc. If there is no candidate remaining in the party list, the mandate of the member of the Parliament shall be deemed cancelled.
2. If a withdrawn member of the Parliament of Georgia was elected under the party list of an election bloc and it was specified in the party list that he/she was a member of one of the parties of an election bloc, the seat of the withdrawn member shall be occupied within 1 month by the next candidate of the same party in the list, if such candidate gives his/her consent to become a member of the Parliament within 15 days after the vacancy became available. Otherwise, the vacant seat shall be occupied by the candidate of the same party named next in the list, etc. If it was not specified in the party list that this person was a member of one of the parties of the election bloc, his/her successor shall be appointed according to the procedure established by paragraph 1 of the present Article.
3. After acknowledgement of the authority of the members of Parliament by the Parliament of Georgia, the status of the candidate for an MP shall be suspended for the persons remaining in the party lists. Immediately after the early termination of the authority of an elected MP under the party list, the status of a candidate for the member of the Parliament shall be reinstated to the person, who is a successor of this MP according to the present Article.

Article 131. Registration of elected members of the Parliament of Georgia

Within 2 days after summarizing the final results of the elections, the CEC shall register the elected members of the Parliament of Georgia and shall give them temporary certificates of their election as Members of the Parliament.

Article 132. Narcotic drug inspection elected members of the Parliament of Georgia

1. On the 7th day after the polling day, all presumably elected candidates for a member of the Parliament according to the preliminary election results under the party lists having overcome the threshold, shall pass a narcotic drug test and an appropriate certificate shall be drawn up, which shall state that a candidate for an MP is either healthy or a drug user.

2. If a person elected as an MP under the party list fails to take a drug test within the timeframe stipulated in the first paragraph of this Article and/or refuses to take the drug test, the parliament shall adopt a decree on refusal to recognize the authority of this MP.
3. The institution authorized to carry out the drug test is obliged to submit to the CEC certificates on carrying out the drug test and the list of elected MPs having taken the drug test no later than by the 14th day after the elections.
4. In cases envisaged in paragraph 2 of this Article, the CEC shall determine the successor for a Georgian MP in compliance with paragraph 1 and 2 of Article 130.
5. Narcotic drug test shall be carried out by an authorized institution. The CEC shall draw up a list of such institutions, by its ordinance, no later than by the 57th day before the Election Day.

Article 148. Ascertaining election results held under proportional election system

1. In order to ascertain the number of mandates acquired by a party list, the number of votes received by a party list shall be multiplied by the number of mandates to be distributed under the proportional rule in the election district and divided by the total number of votes received by the parties/election blocs, which have received at least 4% of the votes cast in the elections. The whole part of the derived number is the number of mandates acquired by the party list. The votes of invalid ballots are not considered in the amount of votes cast.
2. If the total number of mandates acquired by the party lists in an election district turns out to be smaller than the total number of mandates, each of undistributed mandate shall be conferred sequentially first to the party lists that could not acquire a mandate according to the rule established by paragraph 1 of the present Article, but received at least 4% of the votes cast in the elections. If undistributed mandate(s) still remain thereafter, one mandate will be given sequentially to the party lists that have received at least one mandate and have better balance than others. The votes of invalid ballots are not considered in the amount of votes cast by the voters participating in the elections.

3. If none of the party lists acquired a mandate in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, one mandate will be given to that subject with the relevant number of mandates to be distributed under the proportional rule, which received more votes. The votes of invalid ballots are not considered in the amount of votes cast by the voters participating in the elections.
4. If 2 or more party lists, to whom one mandate shall be given in accordance with paragraphs 2 or 3 of this Article, received an equal number of votes, a mandate shall be conferred to the one having registered first at the corresponding DEC for participating in the elections of Sakrebulo.
5. Candidates, whose assigned numbers on a party list are smaller or equal to the number of mandates acquired by the given party list, shall be considered elected to Sakrebulo under proportional election system.
6. If a candidate for the membership of Sakrebulo is elected both from a single-mandate majoritarian district and through a party list, he/she shall be considered elected from the single-mandate majoritarian election district and shall be removed from the party list, while the next candidate on the list shall move up according to the rule prescribed by this Law.
