III FINANCING POLITICAL ENTITIES OPERATION

Funds from Public Sources

Article 16

Funds from public sources appropriated for financing political entities operation whose candidates have been elected members of parliament, deputies and/or /councillors are set at the level of 0.105% of the Republic of Serbia budgetary tax revenues, territorial autonomy budgetary tax revenues and/or local government budgetary tax revenues.

Allocation of Funds from Public Sources

Article 17

Funds specified in Article 16 hereof are allocated to political entities winning seats in representative bodies in proportion to the number of votes calculated according to the method defined in paragraph 2 of this Article.

The number of votes of a political entity taken as basis for allocation of funds is calculated by multiplying the number of votes of all voters up to 5% of valid votes with a quotient of 1.5, and the number of votes over 5% of valid votes of all voters with a coefficient of 1.

Funds specified in Article 16 hereof granted to a political entity participating in elections as a coalition are divided pursuant to coalition agreement.

The ministry with competence for financial affairs and/or the relevant autonomous province authority, and/or the local government authority, transfers the proportionate portion of funds referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article to political entities every month, before the 10th of the month for the preceding month.

Account for Financing Operation

Article 18

A political party may have several accounts but only with the same tax identification number, as well as a foreign currency account, through which it transacts all funds earmarked for financing operation.

Coalition and/or citizens' group define accounts used for transaction of all funds earmarked for financing operation by the agreement establishing such political entities.

Use of Funds for Financing Operation

Article 19

Funds for financing political entities operation are used for functioning and propagation of the idea of a political entity and presume: work with the electorate and membership, costs of transportation and holding gatherings, promotional costs, advertising material and publications, public opinion polls, training, international cooperation, salaries and emoluments for staff, costs of utilities services and expenses related to other similar activities.

Funds for financing regular activities of political entities shall also be used for covering costs of election campaigns, in accordance with this Law.

A political entity is required to use funds received from public sources in the amount not less than 5% of aggregate funds received for operation at annual level for professional upgrading and training, acquiring practical skills, international cooperation and work with the membership.

IV FINANCING ELECTION CAMPAIGN COSTS

Funds from Public Sources

Article 20

Funds from public sources for covering election campaign costs are allocated in the year of regular elections in the amount of 0.07% of the Republic of Serbia budgetary tax revenues, of the autonomous province budgetary tax revenues and/or of the local government budgetary tax revenues for the budget year.

In case of early elections the relevant authorities are required to provide funds specified in paragraph 1 of this Article.

Allocation of Funds from Public Sources

Article 21

Funds specified in Article 20 hereof in the amount of 20% are allocated in equal amounts to submitters of proclaimed election lists who at time of submission declared to use the funds from public sources to cover election campaign costs. These funds shall be paid within five days from the date of proclaiming of election lists.

The remaining portion of funds specified in Article 20 hereof (80%) is allocated to submitters of election lists pro rata to the number of won seats, within five days from the date of proclaiming of election results, regardless of whether the funds from public sources were used to cover election campaign costs.

In case of elections held according to majority system, the funds specified in Article 20 hereof in the amount of 50% are allocated in equal amounts to proponents of candidates who declared at time of filing of candidacy to use funds from public sources to cover election campaign costs. These funds shall be paid to proponents of candidates within five days from the date of determination of final list of candidates.

In case of holding elections referred in paragraph 3 of this Article the remaining portion of funds specified in Article 20 hereof (50%) is allocated to the proponent of the winning candidate within five days from the date of proclaiming election results, regardless of whether the funds from public sources were used to cover election campaign costs.

In case of runoffs for elections specified in paragraph 3 of this Article, the remaining portion of funds specified in Article 20 hereof (50%) are allocated in equal amounts to proponents of candidates participating in election runoff, within five days from the date of proclaiming election results of the first election round, regardless of whether the funds from public sources were used to cover election campaign costs.

If the submitters of election lists and/or nominators of candidates declaring to use funds from public sources for covering election campaign costs fail to give election bond within the deadline set forth under Article 25 paragraph 3 hereof, the portion of funds allocated to such submitters of election lists and/or nominators of candidates is carried over to the remaining funds specified in paragraphs 2, 4 and 5 of this Article.

Funds for election campaign from public sources are allocated by the ministry with competence for financial affairs and/or the relevant authority of autonomous province or local government.

Financing Election Campaign from Private Sources

Article 22

A political entity may raise funds from private sources for election campaign costs.
